Saigon And Other Poems:

Saigon & Other Poems Jack Walters, 2006-02 Saigon and Other Poems is the culmination of nearly ninety years of living observing and reporting Former newsman Jack Walters combines the great events of the American Century and the keenly felt moments of a man's life into a body of poetry emotive erudite and profound as anything written these past fifty years

Love Poem to Tofu & Other Poems Mong-Lan, 2007 In this highly unusual chapbook memorable poetry and beautiful calligraphic art are married to exquisite tastes One immediately identifies with Mong Lan's poems while with her calligraphic art one wishes to linger And the tastes remain even after the pages are closed Whether Mong Lan is singing of her love to food or writing of Southeast Asia particularly Vietnam and Thailand her poetry is quick witted humorous vibrant intoxicating and worldly One sips the words slowly imbibes to smell not only to taste then to devour wholeheartedly of what the soul sings

CBS's Don Hollenbeck Loren Ghiglione, 2011 Loren Ghiglione recounts the fascinating life and tragic suicide of Don Hollenbeck the controversial newscaster who became a primary target of McCarthyism's smear tactics Drawing on unsealed FBI records private family correspondence and interviews with Walter Cronkite Mike Wallace Charles Collingwood Douglas Edwards and more than one hundred other journalists Ghiglione writes a balanced biography that cuts close to the bone of this complicated newsman and chronicles the stark consequences of the anti Communist frenzy that seized America in the late 1940s and 1950s Hollenbeck began his career at the Lincoln Nebraska Journal marrying the boss's daughter before becoming an editor at William Randolph Hearst's rip roaring Omaha Bee News He participated in the emerging field of photojournalism at the Associated Press assisted in creating the innovative ad free PM newspaper in New York City reported from the European theater for NBC radio during World War II and anchored television newscasts at CBS during the era of Edward R Murrow Hollenbeck's pioneering prize winning radio program CBS Views the Press 1947-1950 was a declaration of independence from a print medium that had dominated American newsmaking for close to 250 years The program candidly criticized the prestigious New York Times the Daily News then the paper with the largest circulation in America and Hearst's flagship Journal American and popular morning tabloid Daily Mirror For this honest work Hollenbeck was attacked by conservative anti Communists especially Hearst columnist Jack O Brian and in 1954 plagued by depression alcoholism three failed marriages and two network firings and worried about a third Hollenbeck took his own life In his investigation of this amazing American character Ghiglione reveals the workings of an industry that continues to fall victim to censorship and political manipulation Separating myth from fact CBS's Don Hollenbeck is the definitive portrait of a polarizing figure who became a symbol of America's tortured conscience

Radical Visions Vicente F. Gotera, 1994 Although poets have written about warfare since at least the time of Homer the Vietnam war has struck many observers as being immune to the interpretations of poetry and myth Lyric poetry of a traditional kind writes one critic has proved inappropriate to communicate the character of the Vietnam war its remoteness its jargonized recapitulations its seeming imperviousness to aesthetics Nonetheless the past two decades have seen an unprecedented outpouring of poetry that seeks to describe and come to terms with that bitterly divisive conflict In Radical Visions Vince Gotera argues that poetry written by Vietnam veterans underlines the failure of traditional American myths to help Americans understand the war and its aftermath The book blends sociohistorical commentary with close readings of individual works by such poets as Michael Casey Walter McDonald and W D Ehrhart In the book's first section The Nam Gotera examines several key mythic structures the Wild West a violent extension of the mythic virgin land the machine in the garden the city on the hill regeneration through violence all of which helped delude Americans about Vietnam and the war being fought there In the second part The World Gotera shows how another myth the American Adam as an exemplar of ahistorical innocence proved unusable for returning veterans attempting to readjust to American life In addition to exposing these failed myths Gotera argues the poetry by Vietnam veterans reflects an effort to construct new myths most notably that of the warrior against war an oxymoronic structure arising from the difficulties faced by returning veterans In the book's final chapters Gotera examines the work of Bruce Weigl and Yusef Komunyakaa two poets whom the author considers most successful at portraying the moral absurdity of the Vietnam war without sacrificing lyrical aesthetics The first comprehensive study devoted exclusively to poetry by Vietnam veterans Radical Visions argues that this body of writing registers an important advance in the aesthetics and poetics of war literature and offers a cogent antiwar statement rooted in personal experience

The Oxford Handbook of Soviet Underground Culture Mark Lipovetsky, Maria Engström, Tomáš Glanc, Ilja Kukuj, Klavdia Smola, 2024 In 1932 the Central Committee of the Communist Party issued the resolution On the Restructuring of Literary and Arts Organizations This resolution put an end to the coexistence of aesthetically different groups and associations of writers and artists that had been common during the 1920s and instead led to the establishment of the monopoly of Socialist Realism in 1934 Ironically this resolution unwittingly created a rich literary and artistic production of underground intellectuals known as the Soviet underground during an era of political and aesthetic censorship in the Soviet Union The Oxford Handbook of Soviet Underground Culture is the first comprehensive English language volume covering a history of Soviet artistic and literary underground In forty four chapters an international group of leading scholars introduce readers to a web of subcultures within the underground highlight the culture achievements of the Soviet underground from the 1930s through the 1980s emphasize the multimodality of this cultural phenomenon and situate the study of underground literary texts and artworks into their broader theoretical ideological and political contexts The volume presents readers with several approaches to mapping the underground that include chapters on nonconformist cultures in Ukraine Belarus Baltic countries Central Asia and provincial cities of Russian Federation Finally the volume also provides an analysis of groups shaped around religious and cultural identity as well as queer and feminist underground circles

America & Other Poems Nobuo Ayukawa, 2008 America and Other Poems is the first English translation of a single volume by the seminal Japanese Modernist poet Ayukawa Nobuo One of Japan's most influential yet overlooked poets Nobuo was an important voice for peace and probity in the years that followed World War II and the collapse of Japan's rationale for war This landmark selection spans from 1947 through 1976 and includes work ranging from early writings about the poet's experience on the front line to poems focused on the influence of Western culture on Japanese society Nobuo's lyrical complex poetry offers a rare perspective on war from an ordinary Japanese soldier's point of view It also provides a window into the complex postwar relationship between Western literary culture and the Japanese struggle to make sense of postwar accountability This award winning translation also features texts by Shogo Oketani contextualizing Nobuo's life and work
