Cosmas,2009 Pt 1 This volume describes those JCS activities related to developments in Vietnam during the period 1960 1963 when the United States expanded its initial military commitment to Southeast Asia In 1960 the United States increased its military advisory strength in South Vietnam in response to increased Communist infiltration and to more sustained guerrilla attacks in the south and its contingency planning effort to deploy regular US forces to both Laos and South Vietnam to counter any threat by Communist Army units from the north or from China President Kennedy s called for a new emphasis upon guerrilla warfare at first received only lukewarm support from the Joint Chiefs of Staff After the failed Bay of Pigs episode very early in the Kennedy administration the President lost faith in the advice of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and appointed General Maxwell Taylor to serve as his intermediary with the Joint Chiefs until he assumed the Chairman responsibilities in October 1962 The Kennedy administration s policy was marked by clashes between factions in the Defense Department including the Joint Chiefs of Staff the State Department and the White House By 1963 these differences involved the support the US should provide for the Republic of Vietnam under its President Ngo Dinh Diem The history ends with the killing of Diem by a coup followed by the coincidental murder of President Kennedy a short time later The Joint Chiefs of Staff and the War in Vietnam, 1960-1968: 1964-1966 Jack Shulimson,2011 The Joint Chiefs of Staff and the War in Vietnam, 1960-1068, Part 2 ,2012 The Joint Chiefs of Staff and the War in Vietnam, 1960-1968: 1960-1968 Graham A. assigned as a platoon commander in an infantry battalion preparing for deployment to Vietnam Following several months of training his men whom he would soon come to believe were some of the finest Marines ever to wear the uniform boarded a ship in San Diego and set sail for Southeast Asia not knowing how many of them would ever see their beloved country again Following a harrowing sea voyage that nearly ended their tour before it began they finally arrived in Vietnam Though a cherry unit with no combat experience within three short months that all changed Eighty two of those first ninety nights were spent in mud filled foxholes or ambush positions covered with leeches shivering through the limitless and cold monsoon rains and incessant enemy mortar fire Days of endless patrols in in an area laced with thousands of mines and booby traps as well as the ever present but often unseen enemy As difficult as those first three months were McCarthy says it was a picnic compared to what would follow Recounting his first fourteen months in Vietnam in gripping detail in this book McCarthy draws on his own memory as well as official records to provide an unflinching firsthand account of what it was like to serve and lead as a Marine during the Vietnam War
