Ashish Anubha decides to end her life by committing suicide amidst the beaches of Pondicherry. She ends up meeting Abhishek, the author of this book who narrates her the millennials things. The millennials things revolve around the rationale of Why we go through what we go through and what has to be done to overcome whatever we go through, answering the millennials generation's questions. Be it Mithali Debanjana Maddy or as many as other twenty-six millennials about which the author narrates, they all found it difficult to sail through in their lives in one area or the other they all sailed through in the end. What were those twenty-six millennials going through in their lives? How those twenty-six millennials who found it almost impossible in the beginning sailed through in the end? What did the author narrate to Anubha which not only sailed her through those throbbing sea waves at the beaches of Pondicherry but also sailed her through the emotional turmoil she was going through and led her finding the lost purpose in her life?

This October, Come Read an exciting, thrilling and a humorous book inspired by the real-life events of millennials and learn the Art of Sailing Through. Remember You Will Sail Through Sail Through What Whatever you are going through Better for Life Daniel J. Jones, 2010-06-01. Why is this happening to me is a question being asked by millions of people who have lost their livelihoods in today's economic recession. In Better for Life you will find answers to this question as you explore the trials of several biblical characters and the purposes for those trials. Within these pages you will not only discover the purpose of your trial but you will also learn what you can do about it. You can't change your situation but you can change yourself. God's plan is not merely to get you out of your trials but to transform you while you are in them. Take a journey to discover the reasons for your hardships and learn how you can use these circumstances to your advantage. Remember God is not so concerned with making life better for you. He is interested in making you better for life. So if you are tired of struggling under the burden of your circumstances then it is time to become better for life.
