Sailor Souvenirs:

Souvenirs of the Fur Trade Mary Malloy, Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology, 2000-12-18 American mariners made more than 175 voyages to the Northwest Coast during the half century after 1787 The art and culture of Northwest Coast Indians so intrigued American sailors that the collecting of ethnographic artifacts became an important secondary trade Malloy has brought details about these early collections together for the first time The Sailors'

Magazine and Seamen's Friend , 1905 A Sailor's Log Frederick T. Wilson, 2004 Frederick T Wilson was an engineer who carried the rank of first class petty officer and served in one of the US Navy's first modern battleships the USS Oregon He also participated in the relief of Peking during the Boxer rebellion This is an uncensored picture of enlisted life

Shanghaiing Sailors Mark Strecker, 2014-05-19 Shanghaiing or forcing a man to join the crew of a merchant ship against his will plagued seafarers the world over between 1849 and 1915 Perpetrators were known as crimps and they had no respect for a man's education social status race religion or seafaring experience The merchant ships were involved in the opium tea and gold trades and the practice was spurred by the opening of the Suez Canal A major reason for it was a shortage of sailors and the unwillingness of seamen to sail on certain types of ships They suffered from great deprivations all for a paltry sum usually squandered during shore leave Navies and pirates had their own form of shanghaiing called impressment This work explores the rich history of shanghaiing and impressment with a focus on victims and also considers the 19th century seafarer and the circumstances that made shanghaiing so lucrative The Bounty from the Beach

Sylvie Largeaud-Ortega, 2018-10-31 The Bounty from the Beach is a collection of cross disciplinary essays capitalising on a widely shared fascination for the Bounty story in order to draw scholarly attention to Oceania It aims to reorient the Bounty focus away from the West where most Bountynarratives and studies have emerged to the Pacific where most of the original events unfolded It investigates the Bounty heritage from the standpoint of the beach Greg Denning's metaphor for culture contact and conflict in the Pacific Islands this liminal place that transforms Islanders and voyagers islands and ships each time it is crossed It analyses the way newcomers create new islands and how these changes may occasionally impact the world This volume examines the little people to use another of Denning's expressions who stand on both sides of the beach they are Polynesian or European or as beaches are crossed and remade no longer one without the other but bound together in processes of change Among these people are Bounty sailors beachcombers Pitcairners and indigenous Pacific Islanders of the past and the present This collection also explores the works of some renowned Western writers and actors who turning mutineers after their own fashion and in their own times themselves crossed the beach and attempted to illuminate the little people involved in the Bounty narratives These prominent writers and actors put the spotlight on characters who were silenced on account of race class or geographical distance from the dominant centres of power Inspired by Denning's empowering voice our purpose is to fill that silence Just as it criss crosses the ocean progressing with the ship through time and space TheBounty from the Beach ranges far and wide across disciplines methodologies and scholarly styles Its multidisciplinary course contributes to illuminate the multiple ways in which the Bounty heritage embraces diverse horizons It throws light on the colonial discourse that undertook to stifle Pacific Islander agency and the neocolonial policies that have been applied to Oceania and still are hegemonic moves that have led to global environmental nuclear and ecological hazards As a whole the collection contends that what unfolds in this vast ocean matters the stakes are high for the whole human community Office Appliances; The Magazine of Office Equipment ,1918 The Atlantic Sailor's Handbook

Alastair Buchan,2010-07-15 A practical how to guide to the planning preparation and execution of an Atlantic passage for three specific passages a crossing of the Atlantic Ocean a trip from the East Coast of the U S A to the Caribbean and cruising around the Caribbean itself Seafaring Women David Cordingly,2002-03-12 For centuries the sea has been regarded as a male domain but in this illuminating historical narrative maritime scholar David Cordingly shows that an astonishing number of women went to sea in the great age of sail Some traveled as the wives or mistresses of captains others were smuggled aboard by officers or seamen And Cordingly has unearthed stories of a number of young women who dressed in men s clothes and worked alongside sailors for months sometimes years without ever revealing their gender His tremendous research shows that there was indeed a thriving female population from pirates to the sirens of myth and legend on and around the high seas A landmark work of women s history disguised as a spectacularly entertaining yarn Women Sailors and Sailor s Women will surprise and delight Work, Class, and Power in the Borderlands of the Early American Pacific Evan Lampe,2013-12-12 This book traces the history of working people who helped established the foundation of the American empire in the Pacific from its origins after the American Revolution to its coming of age in the 1840s and 1850s Beginning with the expeditions of the Columbia and the Lady Washington Lampe argues that the early American Pacific can best be considered through the interaction of four major locations connected through the networks of trade the merchant ship the Northwest Coast Honolulu and Canton Guangzhou In each of these locations the labors of a diverse population of working people was harnessed in the critical labors of empire building including the transportation of goods The central question that the consideration of working people in the Pacific economy during this period is Lampe argues the role of power applied on these laborers by an international capitalist class emerging alongside the Pacific commercial empires Lampe also finds that this power was not uncontested and emerged in response to the activities of labor Working people on the ship and in the port cities found ways to secure their piece of the profitable trade often through illicit means
