Madame Bovary + Salammbô + Sentimental Education (3 Unabridged Classics) Gustave Flaubert, 2013-09-20 This carefully crafted ebook, Madame Bovary, Salammbô, Sentimental Education, 3 Unabridged Classics, contains 3 books in one volume and is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents. Madame Bovary, written by Gustave Flaubert, was published in 1857 in French. The story focuses on a doctor's wife, Emma Bovary, who has adulterous affairs and lives beyond her means in order to escape the banalities and emptiness of provincial life. Though the basic plot is rather simple, even archetypal, the novel's true art lies in its details and hidden patterns. Salammbô, 1862, is a historical novel by Gustave Flaubert. It is set in Carthage during the 3rd century BC, immediately before and during the Mercenary Revolt, which took place shortly after the First Punic War. Sentimental Education, 1869, is a novel by Gustave Flaubert and is considered one of the most influential novels of the 19th century. The novel describes the life of a young man living through the revolution of 1848 and the founding of the Second French Empire and his love for an older woman. The novel's tone is by turns ironic and pessimistic; it occasionally lampoons French society. The main character, Frédéric, often gives himself to romantic flights of fancy. Gustave Flaubert, 1821-1880, was an influential French writer who is counted among the greatest novelists in Western literature. He is known especially for his first published novel, Madame Bovary, 1857, for his correspondence, and for his scrupulous devotion to his art and style.

The Classical World, 1917

Salammbô Gustave Flaubert, 2022-11-13 Gustave Flaubert's Salammbô is a captivating historical novel set in ancient Carthage during the tumultuous aftermath of the Mercenary War, 241 BC. Richly imbued with the author's hallmark meticulousness, the narrative is characterized by lush descriptive passages and a vivid portrayal of the cultural and political dynamics of a society on the brink of collapse. Flaubert masterfully intertwines the personal and the political as it chronicles the tale of the priestess Salammbô and her tragic entanglements with the mercenary leader Matho, framed within grand themes of love, power, and religious fervor, effectively immersing the reader in the sensibilities of an entirely different epoch. Flaubert, a pioneer of literary realism, was influenced by his extensive studies of ancient civilizations and his travels throughout North Africa. This exposure allowed him to create a vivid tableau that transcends mere historical fiction; it becomes a profound exploration of human emotion and ambition The meticulous research that Flaubert employed reflects his desire to depict not just the history but the essence of a lost world underlining his belief in the importance of artistic accuracy and depth Salammô is highly recommended for readers interested in rich historical narratives interwoven with psychological complexity Flaubert's novel is not merely a reflection of ancient times but an exploration of universal human experiences It challenges the reader to ponder the intersections of fate and free will making it an essential reading for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of literary history and the enduring power of storytelling

Against World Literature Emily Apter, 2013-04-23 Against World Literature On the Politics of Untranslatability argues for a rethinking of comparative literature focusing on the problems that emerge when large scale paradigms of literary studies ignore the politics of the Untranslatable the realm of those words that are continually retranslated mistranslated transferred from language to language or especially resistant to substitution In the place of World Literature a dominant paradigm in the humanities one grounded in market driven notions of readability and universal appeal Apter proposes a plurality of world literatures oriented around philosophical concepts and geopolitical pressure points The history and theory of the language that constructs World Literature is critically examined with a special focus on Weltliteratur literary world systems narrative ecosystems language borders and checkpoints theologies of translation and planetary devolution in a book set to revolutionize the discipline of comparative literature
