Shades Of Gray The Record Of Gray Davis:

Shades of Gray Dave Workman, 2010 This year's race for Governor in California represents one of the greatest challenges for voters in the Golden State This concise chronicle of Governor Gray Davis is prepared so you and other Californians can have a guide to his record before you cast your ballot in this critical election All the important facts are revealed in this political biography facts often covered up or fudged by the elite media Investigative journalist Dave Workman has written an important book not only for the future of California but also a fascinating account you will find hard to put down Back cover The Colors of Poverty Ann Chih Lin, David R. Harris, 2008-08-14 Given the increasing diversity of the nation particularly with respect to its growing Hispanic and Asian populations why does racial and ethnic difference so often lead to disadvantage In The Colors of Poverty a multidisciplinary group of experts provides a breakthrough analysis of the complex mechanisms that connect poverty and race The Colors of Poverty reframes the debate over the causes of minority poverty by emphasizing the cumulative effects of disadvantage in perpetuating poverty across generations The contributors consider a kaleidoscope of factors that contribute to widening racial gaps including education racial discrimination social capital immigration and incarceration Michèle Lamont and Mario Small grapple with the theoretical ambiguities of existing cultural explanations for poverty disparities They argue that culture and structure are not competing explanations for poverty but rather collaborate to produce disparities Looking at how attitudes and beliefs exacerbate racial stratification social psychologist Heather Bullock links the rise of inequality in the United States to an increase in public tolerance for disparity She suggests that the American ethos of rugged individualism and meritocracy erodes support for antipoverty programs and reinforces the belief that people are responsible for their own poverty Sociologists Darren Wheelock and Christopher Uggen focus on the collateral consequences of incarceration in exacerbating racial disparities and are the first to propose a link between legislation that blocks former drug felons from obtaining federal aid for higher education and the black white educational attainment gap Joe Soss and Sanford Schram argue that the increasingly decentralized and discretionary nature of state welfare programs allows for different treatment of racial groups even when such policies are touted as race neutral They find that states with more blacks and Hispanics on welfare rolls are consistently more likely to impose lifetime limits caps on benefits for mothers with children and stricter sanctions The Colors of Poverty is a comprehensive and evocative introduction to the dynamics of race and inequality The research in this landmark volume moves scholarship on inequality beyond a simple black white paradigm beyond the search for a single cause of poverty and beyond the promise of one magic bullet solution A Volume in the National Poverty Center Series on Poverty and Public Policy The Christian Science Monitor Index, 2000 If It's Not Close, They Can't Cheat Hugh Hewitt, 2012-12-03 This is a book about winning elections in an age when security has trumped almost every other issue and the technology of political effectiveness is evolving with lightning quickness Hewitt offers real world tactics for individuals who care about the future of the United States and 2 want to work effectively to help elect candidates who will lead the country on a national or local level in the right direction In this book Hugh Hewitt does more than rehash conservative grievances preach to the choir or even preach to the choir plus the undecideds He aims to change the behavior of the choir one reader at a time Hewitt includes material targeted to people of faith when appropriate and appeals to all readers who consider themselves conservative or center right Material has been updated to cover current events in 2006 Catalog of Victor Records
