Cultural Expression and Subjectivity of Chinese Peasants Sha Yao, 2021-07-27 As the famous sociologist Fei Xiaotong argued the real life of most Chinese can only be seen in the villages Peasants not only comprise a significant part of the Chinese population but represent a distinctive culture and one that is expressed in its own particular way This makes for an important area of study for scholars in communication studies This volume investigates how Chinese peasants express their culture and adapt to social change The author s research consists of participant observation and interviews of shadow puppetry artists in Guanzhong China illustrating how peasant artists have adapted to the historical and social changes since the founding of the People s Republic of China He discovers that Chinese peasants integrate urban popular culture with their own aesthetic criteria even if the mainstream discourse of the Chinese community overlooks the subjectivity of peasants He goes on to put forwards a creative analytical framework for the studies of the dynamics of subject time space Scholars and students of anthropology sociology and communication studies especially rural communication studies will find this an ideal case study

Haydn's Sunrise, Beethoven's Shadow Deirdre Loughridge, 2016-09-06 The years between roughly 1760 and 1810 a period stretching from the rise of Joseph Haydn s career to the height of Ludwig van Beethoven s are often viewed as a golden age for musical culture when audiences started to revel in the sounds of the concert hall But the latter half of the eighteenth century also saw proliferating optical technologies including magnifying instruments magic lanterns peepshows and shadow plays that offered new performance tools fostered musical innovation and shaped the very idea of pure music Haydn's Sunrise Beethoven's Shadow is a fascinating exploration of the early romantic blending of sight and sound as encountered in popular science street entertainments opera and music criticism Deirdre Loughridge reveals that allusions in musical writings to optical technologies reflect their spread from fairgrounds and laboratories into public consciousness and a range of discourses including that of music She demonstrates how concrete points of intersection composers' treatments of telescopes and peepshows in opera for instance or a shadow play performance of a ballad could then fuel new modes of listening that aimed to extend the senses An illuminating look at romantic musical practices and aesthetics this book yields surprising relations between the past and present and offers insight into our own contemporary audiovisual culture

Arabic Shadow Theatre 1300-1900 Li Guo, 2020-08-17 This handbook aims mainly at an analytical documentation of all the known textual remnants and the preserved artifacts of Arabic shadow theatre a long lived and still living tradition from the earliest sightings in the tenth century to the turn of the twentieth century The book consists of three main parts and a cluster of appendixes Part One presents a history of Arab shadow theatre through a survey of medieval and premodern accounts and modern scholarship on the subject Part Two takes stock of primary sources manuscripts published studies and the current knowledge of various aspects of Arabic shadow theatre language style terminology and performance Part Three offers an inventory of all known Arabic shadow plays The documentation is based on manuscripts largely unpublished printed texts scripts excerpts academic studies in Arabic and Western languages journalist reportage and shadow play artifacts from collections worldwide The Asian Shadow Play J. Tilakasiri, 1999 Comprehensive study of shadow puppetry in several Asian countries as well as the Middle East Europe England and America Shadows of Empire Laurie Jo Sears, 1996 Shadows of Empire explores Javanese shadow theater as a staging area for negotiations between colonial power and indigenous traditions Charting the shifting boundaries between myth and history in Javanese Mahabharata and Ramayana tales Laurie J Sears reveals what happens when these stories move from village performances and palace manuscripts into colonial texts and nationalist journals and most recently comic books and novels Historical anthropological and literary in its method and insight this work offers a dramatic reassessment of both Javanese literary theatrical production and Dutch scholarship on Southeast Asia Though Javanese shadow theater wayang has existed for hundreds of years our knowledge of its history performance practice and role in Javanese society only begins with Dutch documentation and interpretation in the nineteenth century Analyzing the Mahabharata and Ramayana tales in relation to court poetry Islamic faith Dutch scholarship and nationalist journals Sears shows how the shadow theater as we know it today must be understood as a hybrid of Javanese and Dutch ideas and interests inseparable from a particular colonial moment In doing so she contributes to a reenvisioning of European histories that acknowledges the influence of Asian African and New World cultures on European thought and to a rewriting of colonial and postcolonial Javanese histories that questions the boundaries and content of history and story myth and allegory colonialism and culture Shadows of Empire will appeal not only to specialists in Javanese culture and historians of Indonesia but also to a wide range of scholars in the areas of performance and literature anthropology Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial studies Puppetry for All Times Ghulam-Sarwar Yousof, 2014-10-17 The Puppetry for All Times Seminar held in September of 2013 in Ubud Bali was one of the most enchanting of events of its kind held anywhere in recent years Its success revolved around the fantastic locale the overwhelming response from performers as well as the paper presenters and the generous support of Rumah Topeng the House of Masks and Puppets Setiadarma In Puppetry for All Times editor Ghulam Sarwar Yousof offers a unique collection of papers presented at this weeklong seminar by academicians as well as performers of various traditions of Asian puppetry The papers cover a wide range of interests and perspectives in puppetry and theater including history and tradition heritage preservation and conversation tradition and modernity and digital puppetry and media Puppetry for All Times recaps a key international event in the realm of puppet theater marking the beginning of such endeavors as Rumah Topeng's maiden academic publication
