Neofotistos, 2020-12-29 This book explores issues of national identity history and language in light of the 2018 Prespa Agreement Designed to resolve a protracted and bitter dispute the agreement signed by the Macedonian and Greek foreign ministers on the banks of the Prespa lake stipulated that the Republic of Macedonia change its name to the Republic of North Macedonia The chapters examine the social political and economic conditions and events that led to the agreement and the implications and consequences for identity politics in the region Consideration is given to the ways in which and the reasons why identity identities difference differences modes of belonging and experiences of injustice and discrimination have been mobilized By focusing on the Prespa Agreement the collection also offers valuable insight into the processes involved in re making boundaries re defining ethnic and national identities re inventing citizenship and re writing national histories Bringing together expert contributors with intimate knowledge of and long term engagement with the region this volume will be of interest to scholars and students of anthropology Slavic and East European studies history and international relations Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Civic and Uncivic Values in Macedonia Sabrina P. Ramet, 2013-01-23 One of the central challenges facing Macedonia along with other Yugoslav successor states is to develop civic values and to combat such uncivic values as ethnic intolerance religious bigotry and homophobia This volume brings together specialists in Macedonian affairs to offer insights into the experiences and values of the Macedonians Historical Dictionary of North Macedonia Dimitar Bechev, 2019-09-03 Located in the middle of the Balkans North Macedonia reflects the turbulent history of the region The country emerged from former Yugoslavia in the 1990s without violence but struggled to achieve international recognition due to a dispute with neighboring Greece over its name and symbols The name issue was resolved only in 2018 with the signature of the Prespa Agreement reviving prospects for membership in NATO and the European Union EU Yet North Macedonia's story goes centuries back to the Middle Ages the period of Ottoman Rule which lasted until 1912 and the various reincarnations of Yugoslavia The historical dictionary traces the country's past and present with a wealth of articles on issues events institutions personalities shaping political economic and cultural life It looks at the majority Macedonian as well as other ethnic communities such as the Albanians Turks and the Roma There are also entries on North Macedonia's relations with neighbors in history and today as well as with global powers This second edition of Historical Dictionary of North Macedonia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about North Macedonia Islam and

Nationhood in Bosnia-Herzegovina Xavier Bougarel, 2017-12-14 Based on substantial fieldwork and thorough knowledge of written sources Xavier Bougarel offers an innovative analysis of the post Ottoman and post Communist history of Bosnian Muslims Islam and Nationhood in Bosnia Herzegovina explores little known aspects of the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina unravels the paradoxes of Bosniak national identity and retraces the transformations of Bosnian Islam from the end of the Ottoman period to today It offers fresh perspectives on the wars and post war periods of the Yugoslav space the forming of national identities and the strength of imperial legacies in Eastern Europe and Islam s presence in Europe The question of how Islam is tied to national identity still divides Bosnian Muslims Islam and Nationhood in Bosnia Herzegovina places the history of ties between Islam and politics in Bosnia and Herzegovina in the larger global context of Bosnian Muslims relations both with the umma the global Muslim community and Europe from the late 19th century to the present and is a vital contribution to research on Islam in the West

Developing Cultural Identity in the Balkans Raymond Detrez, Pieter Plas, 2005 The fundamental contrast between convergent and divergent tendencies in the development of Balkan cultural identity can be seen as an important determinative both in the contradictory self images of people in the Balkans and in the often biased perceptions of Balkan societies held by external observers past and present In bringing together case studies from such heterogeneous lines of research as linguistics anthropology political literary and cultural history each presenting insightful analyses of micro as well as macro level aspects of identity construction in the Balkans this collection of essays provides a forum for the elucidation and critical evaluation of an intriguing paradox which continues to characterize the cultural situation in the Balkans and which moreover is of undeniable relevance for our understanding of recent political developments As such it also provides a window into the actual state of scholarly interest in the rich interdisciplinary field of Balkan studies This book contains a selection of papers presented at the international conference Developing Cultural Identity in the Balkans Convergence vs Divergence organized by the Center for Southeast European Studies at Ghent University on 12 and 13 December 2003 in Ghent

Imagining Macedonia in the Age of Empire Denis Š. Ljuljanović, 2023 During the tumultuous age of empire Ottoman Macedonia became a blank canvas onto which Great Powers and neighboring states projected their aspirations grievances ambitions and state building endeavors This manuscript aims to elucidate these constructs and imaginaries employing a theoretical framework encompassing entangled history post colonial theory and subaltern studies It will examine both inter state and local examples to shed light on the multifaceted nature of this complex issue

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

Shadow Genealogies Burcu Akan Ellis,2003 Shadow Genealogiesexplores identity transformations under conditions of intense sociopolitical change Based on intensive fieldwork in Macedonia this study chronicles the fragmentation of the Sehirli once widespread urban Muslim communities in Macedonia into Turkish and Albanian elements throughout the formative years of former Yugoslavia Illustrating the dynamics of identity construction and alteration that goes beyond contemporary ethnic divisions in the Balkans Shadow Genealogiesoffers a unique perspective on the flexibility and sophistication that divided societies require if they are to survive as integrated cohesive social units Contested Memories and the Demands of the Past Catharina Raudvere,2016-12-19 This book brings together new perspectives on collective memory in the modern Muslim world It discusses how memory cultures are established and used at national levels in official history writing through the erection of monuments the fashioning of educational curricula and through media strategies as well as in the interface with both artistic expressions and popular culture in the Muslim world at large The representations of collective memory have been one of the foremost tools in national identity politics grass root mobilization theological debates over Islam and general discussions on what constitutes the modern in the Middle East as well as in Muslim diaspora environments Few if any contemporary conflicts in the region can be understood in depth without a certain focus on various uses of history memory cultures and religious meta narratives at all societal levels and in art and literature This book will be of use to students and scholars in the fields of Identity Politics Islamic Studies Media and Cultural Anthropology Social

Inequalities and Discontent in Yugoslav Socialism Rory Archer,Igor Duda,Paul Stubbs,2016-03-31 Socialist countries like Yugoslavia garnered legitimacy through appealing to social equality Yet social stratification was characteristic of Yugoslav society and increased over the course of the state s existence By the 1980s the country was divided on socio economic as well as national lines Through case studies from a range of social millieux contributors to this volume seek to bring class back in to Yugoslav historiography exploring how theorisations of social class informed the politics and policies of social mobility and conversely how societal or grassroots understandings of class have influenced politics and policy Rather than focusing on regional differentiation between Yugoslav republics and provinces the emphasis is placed on social differentiation and discontent within particular communities The contributing authors of these historical studies come from diverse disciplinary backgrounds linking scholarship from the socialist era to contemporary research based on accessing newly available primary sources Voices of a wide spectrum of informants are included in the volume from factory workers and subsistence farmers to fictional television characters and pop folk music superstars

Romani Routes Carol Silverman, 2012-02-14 Now that the political and economic plight of European Roma and the popularity of their music are objects of international attention Romani Routes provides a timely and insightful view into Romani communities both in their home countries and in the diaspora Over the past two decades a steady stream of recordings videos feature films festivals and concerts has presented the music of Balkan Gypsies or Roma to Western audiences who have greeted them with exceptional enthusiasm Yet as author Carol Silverman notes Roma are revered as musicians and reviled as people In this book Silverman introduces readers to the people and cultures who produce this music offering a sensitive and incisive analysis of how Romani musicians address the challenges of discrimination Focusing on southeastern Europe then moving to the diaspora her book examines the music within Romani communities the lives and careers of outstanding musicians and the marketing of music in the electronic media and world music concert circuit Silverman touches on the way that the Roma exemplify many qualities adaptability cultural hybridity transnationalism that are taken to characterize late modern experience And rather than just celebrating these qualities she presents the musicians as complicated pragmatic individuals who work creatively within the many constraints that inform their lives

The Palgrave Handbook of Romani Language and Linguistics Yaron Matras, Anton Tenser, 2019-12-10 Romani is the first language and family and community language of upwards of 3 4 million people and possibly many more in Europe the Americas and Australia Documentation and research on the language draws on a tradition of more than two centuries yet it remains relatively unknown and often engulfed by myths In recent decades there has been an upsurge of interest in the language including language maintenance and educational projects the creation of digital resources language policy initiatives and a flourishing community of online users of the language This Handbook presents state of the art research on Romani language and linguistics Bringing together key established scholars in the field of linguistics and neighbouring disciplines it introduces the reader to the structures of Romani and its dialect divisions and to the history of research on the language It then goes on to explore major external influences on the language through contact with other key languages aspects of language acquisition and interventions in support of the language through public policy provisions activism translation religious and literary initiatives and social media This comprehensive and groundbreaking account of Romani will appeal to students and scholars from across language and linguistics

Balkan Sprachbund Morpho-Syntactic Features Olga M. Tomic, 2006-09-13 At the end of 1998 Professor Pieter Muysken was awarded the Spinoza prize of the Netherlands Organization of Scientific Research NOW and set up a research program entitled Lexicon and Syntax The implementation of the Program started in the autumn of 1999 with research on the lexicon and syntax in a number of areas where contacts between 1 different languages are intensive For the languages of many of the areas selected basic data had to be collected For most of the languages of the Balkan Sprachbund area however there are grammars and dictionaries Moreover quite a number of studies of the Balkan Sprachbund features have been published Accordingly when I joined the team of the Project I aimed at a description of the state of art in the field After several months of research I realized that Balkanists have mainly been concerned with compiling lists of similarities and making parallels between the lexical and grammatical forms of the Balkan languages while analyses of the interaction of the Balkan Sprachbund morpho syntactic features with other features in the structure of the DP or the sentence of a given language dialect are scarce This oriented me towards descriptions of Balkan Sprachbund morpho syntactic features in the context of individual sub systems in nine Balkan language to which they relate the Slavic languages Macedonian Bulgarian and Serbo Croatian the Romance languages Romanian Aromanian and Megleno Romanian Albanian Modern Greek and the Arli Balkan Romani dialect
