Reginald Ernest Hutton, 1900 A Doorway Into Thanks Tim Vivian, 2023-04-07 Poetry should be transitive and deal with something other Thus a doorway offers transition liminal space an invitation a going across into possibly numerous somethings other We can't assume however that the door is always open if closed we need to open it A doorway can confront us Have we the courage to reach for the handle Given the horrors of 2020 and 2021 we must open the door both to grieving and thanksgiving The poems here are midrashim Midrash is a reflection on scripture These poems first imagine passages and stories from the Bible and then reimagine them they build stages create and breathe life into characters and landscape biblical passages with new often challenging backgrounds Many of the poems here have religious political subtexts The poems speak of darkness the things that darken our country and our hearts but they also speak of the life giving lights of mystery wonder and thanksgiving the things that give us hope As writer and poet Louise Erdrich tells us This is how our lives complete themselves as effortless as weather circles blaze in ordinary days and through our waking selves they reach to touch our true and sleeping speech English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art, 1893 The Encyclopædia Britannica, 1905 The Mechanical World, 1922 Edinburgh Series of Temperance Tracts, 1854 More Than

Atonement John B. Champion, 2022-04-07 This book seeks to set forth Jesus Christ as the alpha and the omega of what God has for us. It portrays the universe of God with the redeemer as its soul and center. It presents the self sacrifice of Christ as that which gives him his place forever. The vision of this volume is the lamb in the midst of the throne. Its message is The Lamb that hath been slain and is alive forevermore redeems us by his sacrifice by redeeming us unto it. So what his sacrifice is to us gives us our place forever. If all thought obscuring what he has done for us and can be to us is a barrier to his best for us surely any interpretation which reveals that utmost he can be to us ought to be most welcome for it seeks to present to mind and heart the mind and heart of the message and mission of Jesus Christ. The Daddy Gap Matt Haviland, Dawn

Walker, 2014-11-07 Upon hearing the news that his father has gone to jail a six year old boy poses the question of this generation: Whos going to take my Dads place? The Daddy Gap takes an uncensored look at the distress so many fatherless families are in and provides desperately needed answers about how God responds to this question and how the Church should as well. Dawn Walker and Matt Haviland build a compelling case that not only are single parent families, the widows and orphans of this generation but that it is the Church not the government that should be responsible to care for them. Drawing from their own journeys as single parents Dawn and Matt give heartfelt encouragement to these often marginalized families by sharing how God really sees them, loves them and wants to heal and restore them. Full of rich insights and lavish grace they also offer some hard truths about what redemption and restoration really require. Most importantly they clear a path to help all wounded sons and daughters discover the Father theyve always wanted and who has always wanted them.

The Archetypal God John C' de Baca PhD, 2016-12-01 True baptism requires repentance. Why then was Jesus baptized? Did he need to repent? Or was he merely pretending to repent? These simple yet profound questions strike at the very core of Christianity and the church's traditional answers are not only insufficient but can rattle the very heart of the gospel message. Thankfully the answer lies hidden in the startling truth that Jesus was following a pattern: an archetype and that God himself began this pattern right from the beginning. God is metamorphosing in order to reconcile the world to himself. Since Genesis he has been leading the way in repentance and undergoing a baptism himself. As the great Archetype God has left believers an archetypal pattern in the example of Jesus, the true image of God and it is an example that is meant to be followed. Our own baptism should then be like his and a clear understanding of his baptism will shed light on our own. The baptism of Jesus shatters the glass ceiling that tradition has placed over the saints. Gods children will follow him all the way to the throne. All this and more of Gods astonishing and mind boggling plans for the world and for himself are revealed in the baptism of Jesus. The Archetypal God will ready you for flight; it will give you eagles wings and a strong burst of spiritual insights to help you soar with angels.
