Shadows at Noon Joya Chatterji, 2025-08-30 Shadows at Noon is an ambitious synthesis of decades of research and scholarship which explores the key strands of South Asian history in the twentieth century with clarity and authority Unlike other narrative histories of the subcontinent that concentrate exclusively on politics here food leisure and the household are given equal importance to discussions of nationhood the development of the state and patterns of migration While it tells the subcontinent's story from the British Raj to independence and partition and on to the forging of the modern nations of India Pakistan and Bangladesh the book s structure is thematic rather than chronological Each of the chapters illuminates on overarching theme or sphere that has shaped South Asia over the course of the century This format allows the reader to explore particular issues such as the changing character of nationalism or food consumption over time and in depth Shadows at Noon is a bold innovative and personal work that pushes back against standard narratives of inherent differences between India Pakistan and Bangladesh Its purpose is to make contemporary South Asia intelligible to readers who are fascinated by the subcontinent's cultural vibrancy and diversity but are often perplexed by its social and political make up And it illuminates the many aspects that its people have in common rather than what divides them Sport and American Society Mark Dyreson, J. A. Mangan, 2013-09-13 A special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport this collection of provocative essays explores the many faces of sport in America Drawing upon insights from anthropology history philosophy and sociology and with reference throughout to politics and economics the contributors outline the story of how American sport has contributed to a climate of insularity exceptionalism and imperialism from a symbolic rejection of British rule and British sports to the current status of all American sports such as baseball and basketball in the face of globalization
