Night Passages Elisabeth Bronfen,2013 In the beginning was the night All light shapes language and subjective consciousness as well as the world and art depicting them emerged from this formless chaos In fantasy we seek to return to this original darkness Particularly in literature visual representations and film the night resiliently resurfaces from the margins of the knowable acting as a stage and state of mind in which exceptional perceptions discoveries and decisions play out Elisabeth Bronfen follows nocturnal spaces in which extraordinary events unfold enabling the irrational exploration of desire transformation ecstasy transgression spiritual illumination and moral choice She begins with classical myths depicting the creation of the world and moves through nocturnal scenes in Shakespeare and Milton Gothic figurations Hegel s romantic philosophy and Freud s psychoanalysis In modern times she shows how literature and film particularly film noir transmit that piece of night the modern subject carries within From Mozart s Queen of the Night to Virginia Woolf s oscillation between day and night life and death and chaos and aesthetic form Bronfen renders something visible conceivable and tellable from the dark realms of the unknown

Life'S Glorious Song Kathleen Galvin Grimaldi,2015-11-30 Kathleen Galvin Grimaldi s new volume of poetry asks us to Trust in the nothingness but remain seated at life s table This is a fitting invitation to a collection that asks the big questions and resolves time and again into moments of clarity acceptance comfort and inspiration Every poem is a gem written by a poet at the top of her game a tried and true woman who trusts in the music of a deeper dream to inform these meditations on love loss time passing and the temple of the natural world Master of form master at life this is a poet at home with herself attuned to the precision and beauty of language with lots to say about how to be human in our lovely and troubled world Mary Olmsted Greene founder and director Upper Delaware Writers Collective author of Permission and Women Outside A Conversation about Nature Art Spirit

Summa Theologiae, Prima Pars: Volume 3, Human Beings and God's Governance of Creation, QQ 75-119 Thomas Aquinas, Thomas de Vio Cajetan, 2023-06-23 This book is an introduction to three questions on love according to St Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologiae I II qq 26 28 These three questions reflect on the nature of love q 26 the causes of love q 27 and the effects of love q 28 It is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love both as a bodily passion and an act of the will The purpose is to present the Thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective It aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader The thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal Some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us The worth of a love depends on its object and end St Thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest The method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of Aquinas assumes The scope of the work is limited to three questions ST I II qq 26 28 References to interpretative disputes of Aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers East & West William Aspenwall Bradley, George Sidney Hellman, 1900
