Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow Maria Coffey, 2007-04-01 Maria Coffey's Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow is a powerful affecting and important book that exposes the far reaching personal costs of extreme adventure Without risk say mountaineers there would be none of the self knowledge that comes from pushing life to its extremes For them perhaps it is worth the cost But when tragedy strikes what happens to the people left behind Why would anyone choose to invest in a future with a high altitude risk taker What is life like in the shadow of the mountain Such questions have long been taboo in the world of mountaineering Now the spouses parents and children of internationally renowned climbers finally break their silence speaking out about the dark side of adventure Maria Coffey confronted one of the harshest realities of mountaineering when her partner Joe Tasker disappeared on the Northeast Ridge of Everest in 1982 In Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow Coffey offers an intimate portrait of adventure and the conflicting beauty passion and devastation of this alluring obsession Through interviews with the world's top climbers or their widows and families Jim Wickwire Conrad Anker Lynn Hill Joe Simpson Chris Bonington Ed Viesturs Anatoli Boukreev Alex Lowe and many others she explores what compels men and women to give their lives to the high mountains She asks why despite the countless tragedies the world continues to laud their exploits With an insider s understanding Coffey reveals the consequences of loving people who pursue such risk the exhilarating highs and inevitable lows the stress of long separations the constant threat of bereavement and the lives shattered in the wake of climbing accidents Shadow of the Gypsy Shelly
