The Accident of Color: A Story of Race in Reconstruction Daniel Brook,2019-06-18 A technicolor history of the first civil rights movement and its collapse into black and white Brutal slavery existed all over the New World but only America followed emancipation with a twisted system of segregation The Accident of Color asks why Searching for answers Daniel Brook journeys to the places that resisted Jim Crow the longest In the cosmopolitan port cities of New Orleans and Charleston integrated streetcars plied avenues patrolled by integrated police forces for decades after the Civil War This progress was ushered in during Reconstruction when long free openly biracial communities joined in coalition with the formerly enslaved and allies at the fringes of whiteness Tragically their victories including integrated schools and their alliance itself were violently uprooted by segregation along a stark new black white color line By revisiting a turning point in the construction of America s uniquely restrictive racial system The Accident of Color brings to life a moment from our past that illuminates the origins of the racial lies we live by

Poesch,Barbara SoRelle Bacot,1997-08-01 The only New Deal program to continue into the 1990s the Historic American Buildings Survey has through the years drawn attention to the historical and artistic significance of buildings that contemporary taste might otherwise have ignored Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 makes easily available the fruit of HABS s important and enduring efforts to record Louisiana s architectural heritage In the 1930s the Louisiana HABS team concentrated on public edifices and grand plantation complexes threatened by destruction Later records of HABS include still other habitations of the common man as well as industrial structures The project has yielded not only graphic and written documentation of the buildings many no longer standing but also new insights into the history of the state s architecture An invaluable part of Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 is the alphabetical listing of HABS structures in Louisiana both by familiar name and by parish The listing by parish gives the location the date of construction the architect when known and the current status of each building It also presents drawings or photographs of many of the structures over 300 pictures in all There are besides nine chapters by leading architectural historians who cover all aspects of Louisiana architecture its Creole beginnings in the south of the state the Appalachian folk style in the north and developments on the plantation in the seventeenth century urban setting and in the modern era Those chapters form an essential frame of reference for the data in the HABS listings and call attention to many other structures that are a part of the history of building in the Pelican State Anyone interested in the state s architecture or history will find Louisiana Buildings companies of the 7th Cavalry including their leader George Armstrong Custer were lost For years the shadow of blame for the defeat has been cast upon Custer What role did his subordinates play in the battle Did they contribute to the Custer failure or was he the only one to blame In Custer s Shadow presents the complex life of Major Marcus Reno Custer s second in command Employing photographs and maps to help the reader visualize the text Ronald H Nichols unravels the controversy surrounding Reno s role in the battle and questions the scrutiny to which he was subjected in the years following

Journal of the American Medical Association ,1903 Louisiana Planter and Sugar Manufacturer ,1914 In the Shadow of Statues Mitch Landrieu,2019-03-19 The New Orleans mayor who removed the Confederate statues confronts the racism that shapes us and argues for white America to reckon with its past A passionate personal urgent book from the man who sparked a national debate There is a difference between remembrance of history and reverence for it When Mitch Landrieu addressed the people of New Orleans in May 2017 about his decision to take down four Confederate monuments including the statue of Robert E Lee he struck a nerve nationally and his speech has now been heard or seen by millions across the country In his first book Mayor Landrieu discusses his personal journey on race as well as the path he took to making the decision to remove the monuments tackles the broader history of slavery race and institutional inequities that still bedevil America and traces his personal relationship to this history His father as state legislator and mayor was a huge force in the integration of New Orleans in the 1960s and 1970s Landrieu grew up with a progressive education in one of the nation s most racially divided cities but even he had to relearn Southern history as it really happened Equal parts unblinking memoir history and prescription for finally confronting America s most painful legacy In the Shadow of Statues contributes strongly to the national conversation about race in the age of Donald Trump at a time when racism is resurgent with seemingly tacit approval from the highest levels of government and when too many Americans have a misplaced nostalgia for a time and place that never existed      Island in a Storm Abby Sallenger,2010-09-07 Presents the story of the 1856 hurricane which decimated Isle Derniere an island one hundred miles off the coast of New Orleans which served as a summer resort for the wealthy and the tragic loss of life and environmental devastation which resulted from the disaster      Pan-American Magazine William W.
