instructing his actors he composed the thirty two tragedies and comedies in verse and prose rich with an incomparable knowledge of human nature and an unequaled power of imagination terrible and comic by turns profound and delicate homely and touching responding to every emotion of the soul divining all that was beyond the range of his experience and for ever remaining the treasure of the age all this being accomplished Shakespeare left the theater and the busy world at the age of forty five to return to Stratford on Avon where lived peacefully in the most modest retirement writing nothing and never returning to the stage ignored and unknown if his works had not forever marked out his place in the world a strange example of an imagination so powerful suddenly ceasing to produce and closing once for all the door to the efforts of genius The Literary World ,1878
