by author essay and volume search by play theme and topic and save and bookmark their results      Shakespeare's Courtly Mirror David Haley, 1993 A leading premise of Haley's book is that modern psychological constructs are inadequate for understanding the courtly humanism dramatized by Shakespeare down to 1604 Renaissance culture knows nothing of the bourgeois subject of Locke Freud and Lacan Shakespeare defines aristocratic identity in epic terms and presents not an autonomous individual but a hero whose persona is determined publicly in the courtly mirror That exemplary mirror from Henry IV to Measure for Measure reflects the heroic actions of rulers and courtiers The historical self awareness of Henry Hal and Brutus assumes a more contemporary aspect in the courtly self consciousness of Hamlet Duke Vincentio and the three main characters of All's Well That Ends Well Bertram Helena the King The reflexivity in the title does not indicate the self referentiality of language nor does it refer to the traditional paradigm of consciousness implying stable self knowledge Courtly reflexivity is oriented toward praxis rather than introspection Before taking action the courtier or cortigiana Helena is a good example knows only that she is not what she is The courtier's deliberation is guided by a reflexive self regulating prudence that is usually identified with honor or love In All's Well Shakespeare contrasts this self providence or heroic prudence with Divine Providence but he does so obliquely While focusing exclusively upon a court which prizes worldly action he sustains his contrast through a series of ironical allusions to Scripture Beginning with a prologue on the problems raised by structural and theatrical interpretations of Bertram's role Haley goes on to introduce his concept of reflexivity by way of an exchange with the new literary historicism Chapters 1 to 3 follow the courtly debate over providence and honor through Helena's triumph in act 2 to Bertram's deserting her The collapse of her providential design coincides with the crisis of the sick King's honor a crisis which Shakespeare describes alchemically implying that alchemy understood as reflexive chemistry offers another mirror of the courtier's self providence Chapter 4 the center of the book brings together historical providence and Boccaccian prudence avvedimento in the figure of Ahab with whom Shakespeare compares both Bertram and the Hal of Henry V Chapters 5 to 7 pursue Shakespeare's ironic parallel between biblical Providence and courtly prudence examining specific scenes of self judgment and self betrayal in the Henriad and Measure for Measure as well as in All's Well
