Lugano Report On Preserving Capitalism In The Twenty First Century:

The Lugano Report Susan George,2003 The Lugano Report - New Edition Susan George,2003-09-20 This is a new edition of Susan George's acclaimed satire on capitalism. Fictional experts recruited by world leaders to discuss the future of global capitalism provide their assessment of the dire state of the current economy and put forward new ideas for ensuring the survival of the system. But at what cost? Susan George provides a brilliant and chilling vision of the way the winners in the globalisation game profit from poverty and reveals with relentless logic the dark future that lies ahead under capitalism. This new edition features a new introduction from the author.

Obsolescent Capitalism Samir Amin,2003-12 A political autobiography from one of the 21st century's most prominent radical intellectuals, this title provides unique insights into how radical movements have evolved in response to global capitalism.

Thomas Merton's Poetics of Self-Dissolution Sonia Petisco,2017-07-26 This book includes a collection of essays on the poetry of Thomas Merton 1915-1968, one of the most relevant spiritual masters of the twentieth century. These scholarly inquiries are all glimpses which accurately represent his poetics of dissolution: the dissolution of the old corrupt world in favour of an apocalyptic vision of a new world. Este libro incluye una colección de ensayos sobre la poesía de Thomas Merton 1915-1968, uno de los maestros espirituales más relevantes del siglo XX. Todas estas investigaciones académicas dejan entrever lo que representa exactamente su poética de desintegración: la descomposición del viejo mundo corrupto a favor de una visión apocalíptica de un nuevo mundo. Categorizaciones abstractas de lo sobrenatural que dan paso a una experiencia íntima y mística de lo sagrado en el hogar y en el mundo.

American Thought and Culture in the 21st Century Martin Halliwell,2008-10-07 Will the twenty-first century be the next American Century? Will American power and ideas dominate the globe in the coming years? Or is the prestige of the United States likely to crumble beneath the pressure of new international challenges? This ground-breaking book explores the changing patterns of American thought and culture at the dawn of the new millennium when the world's richest nation has never been more powerful or more controversial. It brings together some of the most eminent North American and European thinkers to investigate the crucial issues and challenges facing the United States during the early years of our new century. From the subterranean political shifts beneath the electoral landscape to the latest biomedical advances from the literary response to 9/11 to the rise of reality television, this book explores the political, social and cultural contours of contemporary American life, but it also places the United States within a global narrative of commerce, cultural exchange and conflict.

Becoming an Ally Anne Bishop,2023-04-14 Already I have found myself quoting Anne Bishop's wisdom. Her simple advice is compelling. Right now in Australia, she has the power to lead us as we struggle with questions of guilt, responsibility and patterns of oppression which are larger than ourselves. Rev Tim Costello, President, Baptist Union of Australia. Becoming an Ally is must reading for anyone concerned with understanding and challenging the dynamics, forms and sources of oppression, whether it is their own oppression, that of others or both. Bob Mullaly is Head of Social Work at

Victoria University Melbourne Where does oppression come from Has it always been with us just human nature What can we do to change it What does individual healing have to do with the struggles for social justice What does social justice have to do with individual healing Why do members of the same oppressed group fight each other sometimes more viciously than their oppressor Why do some who experience oppression develop a life long commitment to fighting oppression while others turn around and oppress others Anne Bishop draws on her many years experience in community work to write this feisty and bestselling guide for activists community workers and welfare workers

Women, Insecurity, and Violence in a Post-9/11 World Bronwyn Winter, 2017-03-23 September 11 has become a temporal and symbolic marker of the world's brutal entry into the third millennium Nearly all discussions of world politics today include a tacit if not overt reference to that historical moment A decade and a half on Winter considers the impact of 9 11 on women around the world How were women affected by the events of that day Were all women affected in the same way Based on theoretical reflection empirical research and field work in different parts of the world each chapter of the book considers a different post 9 11 issue in relation to women global governance human security globalized militarism identity and sexuality in transnational feminist movements

Global Child Poverty and Well-Being Minujin, Alberto, Nandy, Shailen, 2013-01-28 Child poverty is a central and present part of global life with hundreds of millions of children around the world enduring tremendous suffering and deprivation of their most basic needs Despite its long history research on poverty and development has only relatively recently examined the issue of child poverty as a distinct topic of concern This book brings together theoretical methodological and policy relevant contributions by leading researchers on international child poverty With a preface from Sir Richard Jolly Former Assistant Secretary General of the United Nations it examines how child poverty and well being are now conceptualized defined and measured and presents regional and national level portraits of child poverty around the world in rich middle income and poor countries The book's ultimate objective is to promote and influence policy action and the research agenda to address one of the world's great ongoing tragedies child poverty marginalization and inequality

Global Families Meg Wilkes Karraker, 2012-05-08 In Global Families author Meg Karraker provides family scholars with a methodical introduction to the interdisciplinary field of globalization Global Families then examines the ways in which globalization impinges on families throughout the world in four major areas demographic transitions world wide culture international violence and transnational employment The book concludes with a discussion of supra national policies and other efforts to position families in this global landscape

Adult Education at the Crossroads Matthias Finger, Jose Manuel Asun, 2001 Adopting a social action perspective this book is an assessment of where adult education now stands in the world It argues that the purposes and rationale of adult education need to be reconceptualised for it to become an effective agent of change
