Connell, 1987 A portrayal of a safe desperate middle class American marriage as seen from both sides Mr Bridge is dominated by reason and common sense but is vaguely aware that something is missing from his life Mrs Bridge now that her children have grown up is slowly going mad from boredom Mrs. Bridge Evan S. Connell, 1983 unremarkable and conservative couple who live in Kansas City with their three children Mrs Bridge spends her time shopping going to bridge parties and bringing up her children to have nice manners Mr Bridge is an outwardly successful lawyer who only wants the best for his family And yet sometimes both experience the vague disquieting sensation that all is not well in their comfortable lives In a series of comic telling vignettes Evan S Connell illuminates the narrow morality confusion and even terror at the heart of lives of plenty Hilarious and heartbreaking in equal measure these two novels told from both perspectives of the marriage deserve their place amongst the classics of American twentieth century fiction ending with James Ivory's last film The City of Your Final Destination 2009 the book traces their career while offering valuable insights into their creative filmmaking process The volume serves as a corrective to the prevailing critical orthodoxy attached to Merchant Ivory's work which tends to regard them as being solely concerned with historically accurate costumes and settings As independent filmmakers they have developed an idiosyncratic approach that resists facile classification Merchant Ivory have insisted on maintaining their independence More importantly this book shows how Merchant Ivory have always taken considerable care in casting their films as well as treating actors with respect This is a deliberate policy designed to bring out one of the triumvirate's principal thematic concerns running throughout their work the impact of the clash of cultures on individuals Partly this has been inspired by their collective experiences of living and working in different cultures They do not offer any answers to this issue rather they believe that their task is simply to raise awareness to make filmgoers conscious of the importance of cultural sensitivities that assume paramount significance in any exchange whether verbal or nonverbal
