Mrs. Hunt Goes to Washington Olive Hunt, 2003-08 All the world s a stage And all the men and women merely players They have their exits and their entrances And one man in his time plays many parts As You Like It Act II Scene VII If William Shakespeare were living today I d bet a year s salary he would be well acquainted with Olive Hunt who could have served as his inspiration for the quote about the world s stage Olive s biography Mrs Hunt Goes to Washington keeps us on an emotional roller coaster crying with the tragedies and laughing with the happiness of her life Those of us whose lives have been touched by Olive over many years will enjoy the memories of experiences we shared and in the process learn things about Mrs Hunt we didn t know She literally had stage entrances as a performer in the Little Theatre and her exits from dozens of personal and professional situations have been graceful always full of hope for the future However it s between curtains up and down that she acted with Academy Award talent not only as a principal player but also as a stage manager directing the show The Olive Hunt biography will be interesting to many who do not know Olive and to the younger generation searching for deeper meaning in heartaches and accomplishments It also can serve as a practical history for budding politicians teachers physicians attorneys and sociologists Olive Hunt has been a performer with star quality in many notable events of our lives She has been a friend a colleague and a teacher and I am pleased to commend Mrs Hunt Goes to Washington to all who wish to benefit by the experiences of a determined professional who gives meaning to one man in his time plays many parts William E Timmons President Timmons and Company Living Light Book Two In the three-volume series The Way of Light John Scott Lecky, 2023-12-01 This may be a very common concern we do not want to be forgotten Many go to great lengths to be remembered creating the larger cemetery monuments establishing endowments in their names and seeing to it that named bridges roads and buildings continue their memory And who intends to forget them But it often happens nonetheless Living Light is a focus of writing to preserve memory specifically on what made each of the strongest influences in my life most memorable to me Glimpses of the life of each of these individuals are presented in such a way as to illustrate the Light of faith I saw shining through their life These of whom you may read were all significant unique Living Lights in my life As I pondered and worked to complete this set of writings I could begin to see better the connection and influence of each of these individuals in what I think today and in all I was writing Clearly to me it was time to build this anthology of memory The writing of each entry is meant to honor and preserve the memory of the person whose story I am telling But the greater inspiration to write this comes from the pages of the Gospel of Matthew where Jesus is recorded saying in chapter 5 verse 6 Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in Heaven The works of each of these individuals became Living Light to me shining on steps of the Way of Light that is revealed as the best way of life for our travels here and now I am so grateful to The Father for each one of these people who have been so very significant in my life and I write that their works may shine on Yes I have written in the hope that the people about whom these words are written will not be forgotten In recognizing the Light that each of these individuals was able to shine in his or her unique way the greatest hope is that God will be glorified through the stories of their lives National Courier ,1916 The Bob Hope Memorial Book Xulon Press, Incorporated,2003-08 Reports of
