Bluefish Pat Schmatz, 2011-09-13 Thirteen year old Travis has a secret he can't read But a shrewd teacher and a sassy girl are about to change everything in this witty and deeply moving novel Travis is missing his old home in the country and he's missing his old hound Rosco Now there's just the cramped place he shares with his well meaning but alcoholic grandpa a new school and the dreaded routine of passing when he's called on to read out loud But that's before Travis meets Mr McQueen who doesn't take pass for an answer a rare teacher whose savvy persistence has Travis slowly unlocking a book on the natural world And it's before Travis is noticed by Velveeta a girl whose wry banter and colorful scarves belie some hard secrets of her own With sympathy humor and disarming honesty Pat Schmatz brings to life a cast of utterly believable characters and captures the moments of trust and connection that make all the difference Mrs. Estronsky and the U. F. O.

Pat Schmatz, 2001-06 But it's my birthday That isn't fair Why should I get punished for my birthday If I'm going to be punished it should be on your birthday That's Jackie Riley's response when she receives a gift of piano lessons on her twelfth birthday Her father and brother have moved to Wyoming and forgotten all about Jackie The house is empty and her mother cries more than any mother should How could piano lessons do anything but make it all worse But when Jackie starts her lessons with Mrs Estronsky some unexpected doors begin to open One October night something comes flying through one of those open doors and leaves Jackie reeling in the middle of a whole new world a world much bigger than the one she knew before Trust your own experience Jackie says Mrs Estronsky It's the only truth that you'll ever know Jackie tries out this new idea by interacting differently with her family and friends Nothing changes and everything changes all at the same time
