North Cascades National Park (N.P.), Mountain Lakes Fishery Management Plan, 2008 Rider's California Fremont Rider, Frederic Taber Cooper, 1925. Includes sections on Yosemite Valley, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Southern California. Climbing California's Fourteeners Stephen Porcella, Cameron M. Burns, 1998. California's 14,000 foot peaks are altogether different from those in Colorado or Washington. In most cases, they are steep, sheer-walled spires found in remote, pristine wilderness areas. Porcella and Burns have spent years climbing many of the listed routes and have extensively researched all others to create the only route guide that includes several options for each fourteener. Each mountain description includes access history and details such as difficulty ratings and gear recommendations.

The High Sierra R. J. Secor, This new edition of the only guide to detail all the known routes on 570 peaks in the Sierra is completely reorganized to be even more user friendly and includes more than 100 new routes, route variations and winter ascents. The most popular guidebook to the magnificent Sierra mountains has been expanded and improved. There is 30 percent new content in this edition, including new route descriptions, additional peaks, described more historical information and GPS-enabled driving directions. The content has also been completely rearranged to keep roads and trails and passes and peaks together, making the book easier to use. Four of the 30 maps have been revised. The Sierra climbing bible. The Los Angeles Times. The best field guide to the region. Men's Journal. The guide to the Sierra Nevada high country. Climbing magazine.

The Cowhide - A High School Football Tradition John David Fischer, 2005. Across the country are hundreds of high school football rivalries. Each might lay claim that it is special in many ways. In the heart of the great central valley of California is one such rivalry that is exceptional in its power over the people who have been part of it. Two high schools, Redwood and Mt. Whitney, began playing an annual football game against each other in 1955. The 50th game of this traditional rivalry was played in 2004 before 10,000 fans and a live television audience. The two schools, located only a few blocks from each other in Visalia, California, a city of 100,000 people, have maintained this intense rivalry for over 50 years, like very few schools have ever done. The game is played before a packed stadium every year and the community claims it as the biggest event during the entire year. Part 1 explores the history of the Cowhide game, relating the early humble beginning when the original high school split into two schools. The evolution of the game over 50 years is explored. Using hundreds of questionnaires, newspaper accounts and many interviews with those involved over the years, the real meaning of the Cowhide tradition is explored and the reasons are brought out as to why this rivalry has not only endured but has actually increased in strength over the years. Part 2 gives a detailed account of each of the 50 games including the teams records coming into the game the results of any subsequent playoffs and a complete roster of the teams for each year The article of the local newspaper about the game is included in each chapter At the end is an appendix of stats a listing of head and assistant coaches and other interesting items over the years Finally there is an index of all the players who played in the game and what years they played Sierra South Kathy Morey, Mike White, 2006-06-06 This completely revised and updated 8th edition of Sierra South now covers an expanded region of the Sierra from the southern boundary of Yosemite National Park to southern Golden Trout Wilderness With new trips and old favorites Sierra South is the classic guide to backpacking in Sequoia and Kings Canyon national parks Ansel Adams Wilderness and Mt Whitney
