Muborgsky Piano Complete:

Pictures at an Exhibition Modest Mussorgsky, 2015-11-03 Pictures at an Exhibition is Mussorgsky's best known piano composition. It has become a monumental showpiece for virtuoso pianists. The cycle is physically challenging, requiring great strength and stamina. Consequently, this splendid work has been considered out of reach for many pianists. Yuki Chou, Brandenburg, a concert pianist and international award winner and the teacher of award-winning students, has rearranged and slightly simplified all sixteen pieces. More true to the original than other transcriptions, this arrangement will make this piece accessible for Early Advanced pianists to study and perform.

For classical music lovers, there is nothing more beguiling and exciting than the range of technique and emotion that can capture or transform the great works in the hands of a conductor and musicians. These original essays on the one hundred greatest recorded classical works provide both practical guidance for building a library and deep insight into the transcendent power of music itself.

All Indians Do Not Live in Teepees (or Casinos) Catherine C. Robbins, 2011-10-01. Both a tribute to the unique experiences of individual Native Americans and a celebration of the values that draw American Indians together, All Indians Do Not Live in Teepees or Casinos explores contemporary Native life. Based on personal experience and grounded in journalism, this story begins with the repatriation of ancestral remains to the Pueblo peoples of New Mexico. The 1999 return to Pecos of the skeletal remains of two thousand bodies excavated during an archaeological expedition nearly a century earlier was the largest repatriation in American history. In a united purposeful and energizing quest, the Pecos and Jemez Indians brought their ancestors home. This event, along with subsequent repatriations, has accelerated similar momentum across much of Native America. In All Indians Do Not Live in Teepees or Casinos, Catherine C. Robbins traces this restorative effect in areas such as economic development, urbanization, the arts, science, and health care.

Through dozens of interviews Robbins draws out the voices of Indian people some well known and many at the grassroots level working quietly to advance their communities These voices speak against the background of the narrative's historical context The result is a rich account of Native American life in contemporary America revealing not a monolithic Indian experience of teepees or casinos but rather a mosaic of diverse peoples existing on a continuum that marks both their distinctions and their shared realities Catalog of Music-rolls for the Duo-art Reproducing Piano Aeolian Company,1924
