A foundation course in basic English for zero English beginners

The Construction of English J. Gray,2010-09-29 This book takes the view that ELT global coursebooks in addition to being curriculum artefacts are also highly wrought cultural artefacts which seek to make English mean in highly selective ways and it argues that the textual construction and imaging of English parallels the processes of commodity promotion more generally

The Effect of Instructional Reading Software on Developing English Reading Speed and Comprehension for IT University Students Sumar Ghizan, PHD,2012-07 Sumar Ghizan has been a faculty member in the English Language Institute ELI at New York Institute of Technology from 2005 until Sep 2010 Recently she is a research Assistant at The University of Windsor where she is enrolled in the MEd program She has been teaching English Language for Graduate and Undergraduate Students for more than twelve years In 2010 Ghizan has obtained her degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Curricula and Methods of English Language from the College of Educational and Psychological Sciences AAU Her research interests are in language acquisition educational policies and curricula studies She had participated in one conference and looking forward to attend another in Brussels where she is going to present a paper on Educational Policies for the First Nation Child impediments and future perceptions

Developing Materials for Language Teaching Brian Tomlinson,2013-12-19 There have been a number of books published on various aspects of materials development for language teaching but Developing Materials for Language Teaching is the only one which provides a comprehensive coverage of the main aspects and issues in the field This second edition brings it completely up to date and expands on the original book It deals with advances in IT and an increasingly globalized world It is the only publication which views current developments in materials development through the eyes of developers and users of materials from all over the world In doing so it applies principles to practice in ways demonstrated to facilitate the effectiveness of language learning materials The chapters are written so that the book provides critical overviews of recent developments in materials development and at the same time acts as a stimulus for development and innovation in the field It is intended both for use as a course book on postgraduate and teacher training courses and as a resource for the stimulus and refreshment of teachers publishers and applied linguists in the field The book contains updated versions of many of the chapters in the 2003 edition plus new chapters on corpus informed materials development materials development for blended learning materials development for EAP materials development for ESOL and materials development for young learners

Grammar in ELT and ELT Materials Graham Burton,2023-06-06 This book investigates

the content of the grammar syllabus typically employed in mainstream English Language Teaching Using a mixed methods approach the author examines how the syllabuses used in coursebooks are actually constructed how they evolved and how valid their contents are as a basis for teaching The research reported consists of a broad exploration of primary sources in order to outline the evolution of ELT pedagogical grammar ten interviews with key ELT authors and publishing professionals which allows for the investigation of the decision making processes underlying the choice of grammar content in ELT teaching materials and finally the presentation of case studies which examine three areas of grammar analysing the evolution of their treatment in ELT materials both historical and contemporary and comparing their current treatment to data on real learner use This book contributes to the literature on syllabus design and pedagogical grammar and builds on existing research into materials design It will be of interest to researchers and professionals working in the fields of applied linguistics pedagogical grammar curriculum design and materials design Critical Cultural Awareness Yumiko Furumura, Maria Lebedko, Yau Tsai, 2014-09-26 In a rapidly globalizing world one of the most challenging barriers to be overcome is the stereotype This book aims to promote understanding of the nature of stereotypes and to suggest ways in which teachers can manage them by developing critical cultural awareness as an intrinsic part of the intercultural communicative competence of their students Part 1 of the book explores ways of defining eliciting and illustrating stereotypes from theoretical standpoints Part 2 showcases ways of addressing stereotypes through intercultural language education to provide teachers with a firm platform for the practical application of their knowledge and skills when attempting to manage stereotypes in the classroom The Routledge Handbook of Materials Development for Language Teaching Julie Norton, Heather Buchanan, 2022-03-16 The Routledge Handbook of Materials Development for Language Teaching is the definitive resource for all working in this area of language and English language teaching With 34 chapters authored by leading figures from around the world the Handbook provides an historical overview of the development of language teaching materials critical discussion of core issues and an assessment of future directions The contributions represent a range of different international contexts providing insightful state of the art coverage of the field Structured in nine sections the Handbook covers changes and developments in language teaching materials controversial issues in materials development research and materials development materials for language learning and skills development materials evaluation and adaptation materials for specific contexts materials development and technology developing materials for publication professional development and materials writing Demonstrating throughout the dynamic relationship between theory and practice this accessible Handbook is essential reading for researchers scholars and students on MA programmes in ELT TESOL and applied linguistics Teaching Adult ESOL Anne Paton, Meryl Wilkins, 2009-11-16 Are you teaching or training to teach English to adult speakers of other languages Yes Then this is the essential book for you This is one of the few books to effectively blend together research theory and practical pedagogy and link this directly with the context of teaching English to adults There are reflective tasks throughout which encourage you to develop and apply your theoretical knowledge to your own experiences The editors and contributing authors all experienced practitioners and researchers share their experience of meeting the diverse needs of learners in the ESOL setting Learners come from a wide range of cultural educational and linguistic backgrounds and choose to learn English for a variety of reasons These factors have important implications for the way the teaching is undertaken The authors draw on their wealth of experience with adult learners to offer practical strategies for the classroom Key topics include Planning learning and assessment Accuracy and fluency Learning contexts Language analysis language use and language acquisition This is essential reading for students on adult ESOL subject specialist certificate courses or integrated Cert Ed PGCE ESOL courses It is also of interest to people teaching English outside the UK Contributors Vivien Barr Sue Colquhoun Jo Ann Delaney Clare Fletcher Marina Spiegel Helen Sunderland John Sutter Efisia Tranza Mary Weir

Alternative Voices Imtiaz Hasnain, 2013-07-16 This edited volume presents Alternative Voices in the contexts of present day and historical globalisation the emergence of the knowledge society increased global local or glocal migration flows the explosion of social media and disparate regional growth that have both impacted and shaped the sociocultural fabric of geopolitical spaces across the world The volume builds upon twenty seven contributions that focus upon issues related to language culture and identity from a multidisciplinary nexus of historical philosophical and empirically based traditions Positioned in post colonial emic heritage the research presented here challenges the monolingual including monocultural bias and the linguacentric bias in the Language Sciences This volume is an important contribution in terms of analyzing and demonstrating issues related to the complexity of culture and language and their links with social political economic forces particularly the tensions related to glocal identity positions that are evoked and played out in geopolitically heterogeneous spaces Given its multidisciplinary nature this volume presents individual comprehensive accounts of complexities that have been poorly understood and inadequately covered in the existing literature both in Southern and Northern contexts
