

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a couple sitting on a wooden pier or bridge. They are silhouetted against a bright, glowing sunset or sunrise sky. The water below the pier is dark, with some light reflecting off its surface. To the right, there are green trees and foliage, some of which are in the foreground, partially obscuring the view. The overall mood is peaceful and romantic.

In the Fullness of Faith Hans Urs Von Balthasar, 2012-08-20 Virtually every aspect of Catholicism which is controversial within the Church or a stumbling block to non Catholic Christians is treated in this book Rather than avoiding what is most glaringly un modern or what is most criticized by non Catholics Balthasar reviews these elements one by one and shows how they are rooted in the central Christian mysteries and the commonly accepted tradition What is specifically Catholic is not defended polemically but described in such a way that others can see even from their own point of view the inner consistency with the mystery affirmed by all Here is a form of thought which is truly ecumenical precisely because it is fully Catholic We are not only interested in those aspects of the mystery of the Roman Catholic Church which set her apart from the other Christian communities but also to show how often they are central beliefs by describing what is specifically Catholic in such a way that the partner in dialogue can see even from his own standpoint the inner consistency Hans Urs von Balthasar
