Redemption Of Elsdon Bird:

The Redemption of Elsdon Bird Noel Virtue, 1987 Landfall, 1995 Lady Jean Virtue, Noel, 2014-07-01 Jean Barrie is an enormously successful award winning singer who spends her time in self imposed retreat in her huge dark St John s Wood home Here she wanders around the empty rooms drinking gin and vodka Upstairs in the attic lives her mysterious lodger The Fallen Nun Beyond the house Jean s narrow world is inhabited by her octogenarian Aunt Dizzy who smokes hand rolled cigars wears blood red hot pants and gave up aerobics at 79 Jean s best friend Freida the self styled Devils Dyke and Christopher a 17 year old with a Bible bashing mother and a passion for his Uncle Fergus who tends the garden and cleans the house But Jean s solitude is about to be invaded the house rapidly becomes a haven for eccentric souls drawn to her by chance or design and sudden death and revelations of past horrors dart in from unexpected directions A satisfying gem of offbeat humor with dark tragedy Lady Jean is Virtue at his best as he skillfully weaves his narrative into a unique tapestry A romantic novel from one of New Zealand s most revered writers Wellington Kate Camp, 2003-11 Wellington has always boasted a strong literary tradition from its most famous daughter Katherine Mansfield to the richly talented young writers who have graduated from Victoria University s creative writing class in recent years In this impressive collection of short stories poetry and extracts from novels and memoirs Kate Camp captures the character of a unique city Her anthology encompasses excerpts from novels as diverse as those by Robin Hyde Damien Wilkins and Noel Virtue short stories by William Brandt Patricia Grace and Samara McDowell and a special appearance by Carmen The city that emerges is a passionate and vibrant place Wellington is like a beautiful moody lover Kate Camp says in her introduction at least you know you re alive The Our City series offers a new perspective on New Zealand s major cities Each volume presents a selection of the literature inspired by one of New Zealand s four major cities Chosen with care by a well known editor from each city the selections include short stories poems and extracts from novels and writers memoirs Each contributor whether contemporary or historical has a strong association with the city concerned and every selection has something significant to say about the character of the city Together they create a vivid picture of what makes the city unique The Man Who Invented Gender Professor Department of English Terry Goldie, Terry Goldie, 2014-01-01 In 1955 the controversial and innovative sexologist John Money first used the term gender in a way that we all now take for granted to describe a human characteristic Money s work broke new ground and gave currency to medical ideas about human sexuality As an ardent advocate for sexual liberation he became something of a fixture in the popular imagination This book cuts through Money s talent for polemic and self promotion by digging into the substance of Money s theories and achievements It offers for the first time a balanced and probing textual analysis of this pioneering scholar s writing to assess Money s profound impact on the debates and research on sexuality and gender that dominated the last half of the twentieth century Through his analysis Goldie recovers Money s brilliance and insight from simplistic dismissals of his work due to his involvement in the tragic David Reimer case
