Reflection of an Airline Pilot William Samuels, 1999-10-01 Reflections of a Pilot, Part 2, Reflections of a Pilot Leonard Porter, 2009 Reflections of a Police Psychologist Jack A. Digliani PhD EdD, 2022-10-24

Reflections of a Police Psychologist is an interesting journey through the experiences thoughts and observations of a seasoned police veteran. It is written for police officers and those who would like a glimpse into the world of policing from the perspective of a police psychologist. Topics of discussion include transitioning into policing, police and personal stress, surviving critical incidents, police peer support teams, police marriage and family, coping with death and loss, mental illness interacting with persons that are mentally ill, suicide and life after a police career. The insights of Dr Digliani apply equally well to those outside of the policing profession. Jack A Digliani is a psychologist and former deputy sheriff, police officer and detective. He has served as the police psychologist and peer support team clinical supervisor for the Fort Collins Police Services, the Loveland Police Department and the Larimer County Sheriff's Office.

Reflections of a Police Psychologist Jack Digliani, 2010-06-18

Reflections of a Police Psychologist is an account of the experiences, thoughts and observations of a seasoned police veteran. It is written for police officers and those who would like a glimpse into the world of policing from the perspective of a former police officer and current police psychologist. Dr Digliani discusses the major challenges facing those first entering police work. He addresses police field training and identifies the ten police field training pitfalls. The PATROL program developed to assist new officers is outlined. It involves an orientation and phase meetings between new officers and the staff psychologist to support them throughout field training. Dr Digliani discusses how stress management becomes life management within the concepts of life by design and life by default. Inside the parameters of life management, a list of Some Things to Remember functions as an instrument for transactional change. The issues related to traumatic stress and exposure are discussed. The insights presented originate out of years of treating officers exposed to traumatic events. The role of police peer support teams is examined. Models for a peer support team policy and operational guidelines are presented. There is also information relating to the confidentiality of peer support interactions, a topic of current controversy. Traumatic incident debriefings and their applications in policing are elucidated along with phase and freeze frame models of debriefing. Included is a discussion of the current efficacy research pertinent to traumatic incident debriefings. Police family issues and the Foundation Building Blocks of Functional Relationships are outlined. Various family patterns of interaction are identified, including information for families of traumatized officers. There is a discussion of coping with death and loss, a critical area for police officers. An exposition of mental illness and interacting with the mentally ill from a police perspective is presented. Toward the end of the book, the retirement transition is discussed. In retirement or separation from service, officers return to the civilian world. Some experience difficulty with this transition. Issues to consider before retirement are presented. The final chapter includes the general reflections and policing history of Dr Digliani. These reflections include the insights that come only with years of
