Reform Of Housing In Eastern Europe And The Soviet Union:

The Reform of Housing in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union Jozsef Hegedus, Ivan Tosics, Bengt Turner, 2005-11-04 The rapid political changes in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union have had repercussions for many elements of the socialist system Housing provision always an important part of the socialist agenda has undergone extensive changes These have solved some problems but given rise to others The studies in The Reform of Housing in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union highlight the various aspects of housing reform including such issues as rehabilitation private initiatives housing quality welfare requirements and home ownership While in some countries policy makers have adhered to the older methods of housing provision in others the number of massive state run projects has declined in favour of smaller privately funded enterprises The latest changes reflect the socio economic restructuring of the countries in general and thus housing can be seen as a spearhead for reforms throughout the system The contributors are active researchers in the former Eastern Bloc who analyse the latest reforms and academics from Western Europe who supply a context of broader housing issues They analyse the external factors that have influenced the reforms and assess the outlook for the future

The Reform of Housing in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union Jozsef Hegedus, Ivan Tosics, Bengt Turner, 2005-11-04 First published in 1992 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Housing Policy Reforms in Post-Socialist Europe Sasha Tsenkova, 2008-12-29 The book explores both theoretically and empirically the impacts of housing reforms on housing provision in the context of the transition from a centrally planned to a market based economy Fifteen years after the overthrow of state socialism housing policy has lost its privileged status of a political priority as most politically embedded systems had favoured market based solutions to housing problems This departure from state controlled housing policies with the aim of providing a dwelling for every family is significant particularly in some post socialist countries where no new housing policy has emerged The transition process embedded in the paradigm shift from central planning to markets has triggered off turbulence and adjustments with tangible outcomes in post socialist housing systems What has changed and what new housing systems have emerged during this dramatic transition to markets and democracy Are these systems more efficient and equitable These questions are the main focus of the book with an emphasis on diversity and change in housing reforms The book supports the hypothesis that notions of convergence are not really appropriate to the conceptualisation of post socialist housing systems It argues that different housing policy choices are going to map out increasingly divergent scenarios for future development

Housing Policies in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union J. A. A. Sillince, 2014-04-08 Housing has enjoyed a high place on the agendas of most socialist countries However this place has not been undisputed and this book examines the internal and external forces which have influenced housing under central planning

The East European Economy in Context David Turnock, 2003-09-02 Since 1989 the former communist countries of Eastern Europe have witnessed a profound and dramatic upheaval The economic coherence of this region formerly maintained through the adoption of the Soviet system of government has fractured In The East European Economy in Context Communism and Transition David Turnock examines the transition from communist to free market economies both within and between the states of Eastern Europe As well as containing an informative survey of the impact of communism The East European Economy in Context provides Political profiles of individual countries A clear study of the contrasts between northern and balkan groups Summaries of regional variations in the transition process An exploration of the new state structures and resources Discussion of political stability inter ethnic tensions and progress in economic change Democracy And Environmental Movements In Eastern Europe Katy Pickvance,2019-03-13 Democracy and Environmental Movements in Eastern Europe A Comparative Study of Hungary and Russia is a systematic comparison of environmental activism and more broadly collective democratic action in two former state socialist societies Based on extensive research Katy Pickvance offers us a study in contrasts Russia stands as an example of con Social Policy Reform in China Catherine Jones Finer,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 The People s Republic of China PRC is a timely example of social policy reform in a socialist market economy This important and topical edited collection brings together leading Chinese and Western experts to introduce and integrate policy issues of the PRC into the mainstream of cross national social policy debate Drawing upon comparativist expertise in relevant aspects of social policy the book explores the ways in which the PRC has or has not taken lessons from abroad in key social policy respects and illustrates policy relevant relations between Chinese and Western perspectives The contributors identify those aspects of China s recent social policy reforms that seem the most and least likely to appeal to Western societies The collection therefore represents a substantial advance in two way East West lesson learning in social and public policy Housing Policy and Practice in China Y. Wang,A. Murie,1998-12-16 An authoritative addition to comparative housing research adding to knowledge of housing policy in practice in China It demonstrates how Chinese housing provision and policy differs in important ways from that of the former state socialist regimes in Eastern Europe and from other developing countries with which China is often grouped The relationships to the Chinese political and social frameworks and the influences of Asian neighbours are outlined and assessed Private Rental Housing in Transition Countries József Hegedüs,Martin Lux,Vera Horváth,2017-09-12 This book presents an overview of private rented housing in selected new EU member states and other transition countries a topic scarcely researched to date as it is largely part of the informal economy and consequently often invisible to official statistics Part I presents the private rented sector in Western and Northern European countries the history of private renting under socialism in Central and Eastern Europe and thematic issues such as restitution and marginalized groups depending on privately rented housing Part II provides a series of country case studies from the Central and East European region Part III concludes with chapters on the possibility of utilizing the private rental sector in affordable housing provision through good practices in both old and new EU member states and sets out to further the housing policy debate on European housing regimes This unique edited collection will be of great value to scholars of and practitioners involved in housing policy and economics urban development international relations politics economics and sociology The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies, 1992 Provides information on East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union

Economic Reforms and Welfare Systems in the USSR, Poland and Hungary Jan Adam, 1991-06-18 The contributors to this volume analyze the rise of the socialist welfare system its advantages and disadvantages The main focus of the volume is the analysis of the changes carried out and also those expected in the welfare system in the USSR Poland and Hungary as a result of economic reforms State-Building in Kazakhstan Dina Sharipova, 2018-07-05 This book challenges the conventional wisdom that informal institutions networks clientelism and connections have to disappear in modern societies due to liberalization of the economy rapid urbanization and industrialization The case of Kazakhstan shows that informal reciprocal institutions continue to play an important role in people's everyday lives Liberalization of the economy and state retrenchment from the social sphere decreased the provision of public goods and social support to the population in the post independence period Limited access to state benefits has in turn stimulated people's engagement in informal reciprocal relations The author investigates informal channels and mechanisms people use to gain access to quality public goods education housing and healthcare Comparing the Soviet and post Soviet periods the author shows that people are more likely to rely on family networks and clientelist relations rather than on help from the state to obtain scarce resources The book provides an important contribution to the literature on informal institutions and explains the relationship between a formal welfare state and informal reciprocity Wards of Hanoi David Wee Hock Koh, 2006 Analyses state society interaction at the ward level of Hanoi and shows that at that level the mediation space results from the inefficient party state as well as from the social dimensions that party state officials operate when they try to enforce the rule of the one party state

Cities After Socialism Gregory Andrusz, Michael Harloe, Ivan Szelenyi, 2011-08-10 Cities After Socialism is the first substantial and authoritative analysis of the role of cities in the transition to capitalism that is occurring in the former communist states of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union It will be of equal value to urban specialists and to those who have a more general interest in the most dramatic socio political event of the contemporary era the collapse of state socialism Written by an international group of leading experts in the field Cities after socialism asks and answers some crucial questions about the nature of the emergent post socialist urban system and the conflicts and inequalities which are being generated by the processes of change now occurring Reexamining Economic and Political Reforms in Russia, 1985-2000 Vladimir Gel'man, Dmitry Travin, Otar Marganiya, 2014-06-25 Reexamining Economic and Political Reforms in Russia 1985-2000 Generations Ideas and Changes analyzes the impact of generational changes and ideational changes on major political and economic reforms conducted in Russia during the late twentieth century This book examines how the policy agenda was shaped by the ideas of the generations representatives for the sixties and seventies Representatives of the generation of sixtiers conducted reforms from 1985 to 1991 and invested major efforts in political liberalization but did not pay enough attention to economic reforms On the other hand the reformers from the generation of seventiers who were in charge of policy making from 1991 to 1998 were genuinely oriented toward market building but rather insensitive to the democratization of the political regime This book explores how these differences in ideational agendas produced inconsistent and controversial outcomes from both stages of reforms

Pressures for Reform in the East European Economies

,1989 The History of the European Family: Family life in the twentieth century David I. Kertzer,Marzio Barbagli,2003

This book inaugurates a major three volume history of the family in Europe over the past five hundred years In the series eminent European and American social historians present a fresh reading of family life in Europe explaining how families and family relations differed across Europe and how and why they changed over time

Foreign Trade In Eastern Europe And The Soviet Union Michael FriedlAnder,2019-04-11 This second yearbook of The Vienna Institute for Comparative Economic Studies presents studies dealing with the economic situation in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union Its foreign trade analysis offers insights into the ongoing transition process from centrally planned to market oriented systems

Housing Change in East and Central Europe Sasha Tsenkova,2017-05-15 Ten years after the fall of the Berlin Wall patterns of change to the former communist nations of Europe are now discernible in a way that was impossible to see in the initial years This insightful book focuses on the case of changes in housing based on evidence collected from across the Central and Eastern European region The volume adopts a conceptual framework and provides cross regional analysis amongst which is situated a series of more focused case studies Issues examined include the consequences of the rapid privatization of state rental housing including the emergence of super owner occupied countries dramatic changes in urban structure and evidence that housing having been the shock absorber against which wider economic restructuring has occurred now faces a whole series of deferred problems The enthusiasm with which the market economy was initially embraced must now be tempered by a more sober assessment of what in reality has happened
