Seal Victoria Dickenson,2015-11-15 Playful and inquisitive seals have long been interested in humans and humans have reciprocated that interest falling for their beauty grace and charm as they frolic alongside our boats or loll on sandy shores In this newest entry in the Animal series Victoria Dickenson traces the history of our interaction with these beautiful fascinating swimmers from the centuries of hunting in which people killed countless seals for their skin oil and meat to the present when the white furred baby seal has become one of the most potent symbols of the need for ecological conservation Along the way she offers an approachable account of seal biology and behavior and she delineates the threats they face from habitat destruction and climate change Beautifully illustrated and packed with stories from folklore myth and history Seal offers a richly immersive view of a much loved storied creature National Oceanographic Program -- 1965 United States.

In The Empty Ocean acclaimed author and artist Richard Ellis tells the story of our continued plunder of life in the sea and weighs the chances for its recovery Through fascinating portraits of a wide array of creatures he introduces us to the many forms of sea life that humans have fished hunted and collected over the centuries from charismatic whales and dolphins to the lowly menhaden from sea turtles to cod tuna and coral Rich in history anecdote and surprising fact Richard Ellis s descriptions bring to life the natural history of the various species the threats they face and the losses they have suffered Killing has occurred on a truly stunning scale with extinction all too often the result leaving a once teeming ocean greatly depleted But the author also finds instances of hope and resilience of species that have begun to make remarkable comebacks when given the opportunity Written with passion and grace and illustrated with Richard Ellis s own drawings The Empty Ocean brings to a wide audience a compelling view of the damage we have caused to life in the sea and what we can do about it Hearings United States.
