Sahara And Sudan Volume 1:

Slaves and Slavery in Africa John R. Willis, John Ralph Willis, 1985 Sahara and Sudan Gustav Nachtigal, 1974 An Engraved Landscape: Rock carvings in the Wadi al-Ajal, Libya Tertia Barnett, 2023-02-23 An Engraved Landscape is a contextual analysis of a substantial new corpus of engravings from the Wadi al Ajal situated in the Central Saharan region of south west Libya The wadi is renowned as the heartland of the Garamantian civilization which emerged from local mobile Pastoral communities in the 1st millennium BC and dominated trans Saharan trade and politics for over a thousand years Extensive archaeological and palaeoenvironmental investigations in recent years have provided detailed insight into the later prehistory and protohistory of the wadi and surrounding areas However prior to the fieldwork detailed in this work only a handful of carvings had been recorded in the wadi This work is based on systematic survey conducted between 2004 and 2009 which recorded around 2 500 previously unknown or unpublished engraved and inscribed rock surfaces All forms of engraving whether figurative or surface markings were viewed as significant residues of human interaction with the rock surface and were recorded The resulting database provides an opportunity to analyze the engravings in relation to their changing physical and cultural contexts and the discussion offers a fresh interpretation of Saharan rock art based on this substantial new evidence An Engraved Landscape also captures in detail a unique heritage resource that is currently inaccessible and threatened This record of the fragile engravings provides an important source of information for researchers and students A Labyrinth of Kingdoms Steve Kemper, 2012-06-18 Kemper s majestic account of Barth s journey restores the reputation of an explorer who was as passionate about science as he was about rigorous travel It s an enthralling adventure captivantly told Ziauddin Sardar Times London In 1840 Heinrich Barth joined a small British expedition into unexplored regions of Islamic North and Central Africa One by one his companions died but he carried on alone eventually reaching the fabled city of gold Timbuktu His five and a half year 10 000 mile trek ranks among the greatest journeys in the annals of exploration and his discoveries are considered indispensable by modern scholars of Africa In this historical adventure the first book about Barth in English Kemper goes a long way toward rescuing this fascinating figure from obscurity Sahara Marq De Villiers, Sheila Hirtle, 2003 A rich and fascinating biography of the world s largest desert its history peoples traditions climate creatures its tastes sights and sounds Captives and Companions Justin Marozzi, 2025-10-21 The definitive history of the slave trade in the Islamic world a story that has been overshadowed by its notorious but shorter lived Atlantic counterpart Slavery in the Islamic world has a long complex and controversial history In the earliest days of Islam Arab Muslims enslaved men women and children as the spoils of war In the following centuries young boys were imported to imperial Islamic courts in enormous numbers Some were castrated to serve as eunuch guardians of sacred spaces from the imperial harem of Istanbul to the Prophet s Mosque in Medina Others were harvested by the Ottomans to serve as Janissaries the sultan s elite infantry unit Some even rose to the highest levels of political and military command making a mockery of their slave status For wom leading concubines became powerful figures in their own right In the ninth century Golden Age of Baghdad the most beautiful and accomplished courtesans were among the richest most celebrated figures of their day In the twentieth century more than a thousand years later their cosmopolitan counterparts were still entertaining Ottoman sultans Yet it was Africa which bore the brunt of the Islamic world s insatiable demand for slave labour Slavers plied its Mediterranean Atlantic and Indian Ocean coasts traders raided inland for human cargo and millions of enslaved Africans trudged across the Sahara into captivity Meanwhile North African corsairs turned the Mediterranean into a slaving free for all between Muslims Christians and Jews The sheer longevity of slavery was no less surprising Arab Muslims adapted and regulated this practice within an Islamic context Sanctioned by the Prophet Mohammed legitimated by the Quran and holy law slavery endured for fifteen centuries Abolition had few champions and came late in the day hereditary slavery continues even today in Mali and Mauritania Captives and Companions takes the reader on an extraordinary historical journey across deserts continents and oceans from Baghdad to Bamako Tripoli to Timbuktu Istanbul to the Black Sea and reveals a hidden but vital chapter in our understanding of world civilization
