Saint Suniti And The Dragon And Other Fables:

Saint Suniti and the Dragon Suniti Namjoshi, 1994-01-01 Feminist Fables ; Saint Suniti and the Dragon Suniti Namjoshi, 1994 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature Engendering Realism and Postmodernism Beate Neumeier, 2001 This volume assembles critical essays on and excerpts from works of contemporary women writers in Britain Its focus is the interaction of aesthetic play and ethical commitment in the fictional work of women writers whose interest in testing and transgressing textual boundaries is rooted in a specific awareness of a gendered multicultural reality This position calls for a distinctly critical impetus of their writing involving the interaction of the political and the literary as expressed in innovative combinations of realist and postmodern techniques in works by A S Byatt Maureen Duffy Zoe Fairbairns Eva Figs Penelope Lively Sara Maitland Suniti Namjoshi Ravinder Randhawa Joan Riley Michele Roberts Emma Tennant Fay Weldon Jeanette Winterson All contributions to this volume address aspects of these writers positions and techniques with a clear focus on their interest in transgressing boundaries of genre gender and post colonial identity The special quality of these interpretations first given in the presence of writers at a symposium in Potsdam derives from the creative and prosperous interactions between authors and critics The volume concludes with excerpts from the works of the participating writers which exemplify the range of concrete concerns and technical accomplishments discussed in the essays They are taken from fictional works by Debjani Chatterjee Maureen Duffy Zoe Fairbairns Eva Figs Sara Maitland and Ravinder Randhawa They also include the creative interactions of Suniti Namjoshi and Gillian Hanscombe in their joint writing and Paul Magrs critical engagement with Sara Maitland St Suniti and the Dragon Suniti Namjoshi, 1993 Annotation An original imagination full of surprises from Beowulf to Bangladesh Companion to Contemporary Black British Culture Alison Donnell, 2002-09-11 The Companion to Contemporary Black British Culture is the first comprehensive reference book to provide multidisciplinary coverage of the field of black cultural production in Britain The publication is of particular value because despite attracting growing academic interest in recent years this field is still often subject to critical and institutional neglect For the purpose of the Companion the term black is used to signify African Caribbean and South

Asian ethnicities while at the same time addressing the debates concerning notions of black Britishness and cultural identity This single volume Companion covers seven intersecting areas of black British cultural production since 1970 writing music visual and plastic arts performance works film and cinema fashion and design and intellectual life With entries on distinguished practitioners key intellectuals seminal organizations and concepts as well as popular cultural forms and local activities the Companion is packed with information and suggestions for further reading as well as offering a wide lens on the events and issues that have shaped the cultural interactions and productions of black Britain over the last thirty years With a range of specialist advisors and contributors this work promises to be an invaluable sourcebook for students researchers and academics interested in exploring the diverse complex and exciting field of black cultural forms in postcolonial Britain

Indian Women's Writing in English Joel Kuortti, 2002 This is a remarkable collection of information on Indian women's writing written originally in English Beginning from the 19th century it introduces 444 writers of poetry and fiction Now it has been a part of common critical parlance to say that the Indian English women's writing is in ascendance One aim of this bibliography is to illustrate this phenomenon and to emphasise the variety of writing Writers included in the bibliography come from all over India and from the Indian diaspora all over the world Another aim of this bibliography is to make us aware of the constructed nature of writerhood A given writer's texts do not exist and circulate in a vacuum but in a context We can see that Indian English women's writing is taking place But what we do not see is the critical establishment that is literary scholars and critics taking much note of it

Cyberfeminism Susan Hawthorne, Renate Klein, 1999 This collection explores the possibilities for feminism in cyberspace It also looks at the pitfalls of the medium with theorists examining trafficking of women perception of the body and the problems of global and homogenised culture

The Journal of Pre-Raphaelite Studies, 2001

Feminist Writers, 1996 Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of feminist writers from all time periods written by subject experts
