Wallace,2024-06-06 With advances in neuroscience many Christians are confused about what the soul is and its role in human flourishing This confusion is rapidly increasing through the writings of neurotheologians such as Curt Thompson and Jim Wilder who imply our brains are ultimately the cause of our thoughts beliefs desires choices and very identity This book identifies and corrects the wrong assumptions of neurotheologians outlines a biblically and philosophically sound understanding of our soul and its relation to the body and illustrates how this understanding is the right path toward more fully loving God and loving others The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1976 Gottschalk and a Medieval Predestination Controversy Gottschalk (of Orbais),2010 The question of predestination and its nature which drew strong protests from the monks of Provence in the early fifth century against the teaching of Augustine of Hippo was initially settled by the Council of Orange in 529 But in the Carolingian renaissance in the ninth century the Benedictine monk Gottschalk of Orbais brought the teachings of the late Augustine to the forefront of theological debate and greatly disturbed the clergy and faithful with his doctrine of double predestination of some to the joy of heaven and of others to the eternal punishment of hell a doctrine that he claimed was that of Augustine and the Catholic faith The present volume provides for the first time an English translation of Gottschalk's key writings on predestination and various reactions and comments from leading theologians of the ninth century as well as a learned introduction to Gottschalk's life and controversies Publisher The Modulated Scream Esther Cohen,2009 This book provides an integral readable account of changing attitudes toward pain in late medieval Europe Since pain itself cannot be known the book looks at pain by chronicling what people wrote about it and what they did with and about that Religious Books and Serials in Print ,1982
