Saint Sophia:

The Redemption of Saint Sophia John Albert Douglas, 1919 The Golden Horde and the Rise of Moscow Ann Byers, 2016-07-15 The outermost khanate of the Mongol Empire was the Golden Horde which conquered the Rus in northwestern Russia in the thirteenth century and continued to rule there in some capacity until the Russian Empire annexed Crimea the khanate's last holdout in 1783 Despite vast cultural and geographic differences between Rus and the Mongols traditional homeland on the steppes of Central Asia the Golden Horde flourished with Moscow becoming the dominant principality This fascinating and little known history is related in thrilling panoramic narrative detail and includes profiles of Rus leaders such as Alexander Nevsky and Daniel of Moscow Saint Benedict, Montecassino, and the Crisis of Ninth-Century Southern Lombards in Early Medieval Cassinese Memory Luigi Andrea Berio, 2025-05-30 The dissolution of the Lombard political unity in southern Italy and the Muslim military activities in that area rendered the ninth century a crucial yet troubled period for the history of this part of the Italian peninsula The abbey of Montecassino was deeply affected by those events as well Its riches in fact made it an easy target for the Muslims who after imposing heavy tributes on the monastery pillaged and destroyed it in 883 Several years had to pass before Saint Benedict's monks could return to Montecassino In the difficult period of exile they put a lot of effort in the reconstruction of their community's identity as well as in reaffirming its role as repository of southern Italy's memory In this process of reconstruction the texts known as The Chronicles of Saint Benedict of Cassino had the fundamental task of describing as well as explaining the events that had provoked the crisis of southern Lombard Italy Using a topical approach and presenting the English translation and the Latin text of excerpts from The Chronicles of Saint Benedict of Cassino this volume examines how the Cassinese historians narrated that tragic period and at the same time mentioned the glorious times of Saint Benedict's foundation of Montecassino Saint Benedict Montecassino and the Crisis of Ninth Century Southern Lombards in Early Medieval Cassinese Memory will appeal to scholars and students of early medieval southern Italy as well as all those interested in medieval Europe and the medieval Mediterranean The Logic of Divine Creation , Russian Travelers to Constantinople in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Centuries George P. Majeska, 1984 Emperor and Priest Gilbert Dagron, 2003-10-16 This is a revised and translated edition of Gilbert Dagron's Empereur et prêtre an acknowledged masterwork by one of the great Byzantine scholars of our time The figure of the Byzantine emperor a ruler who sometimes was also designated a priest has long fascinated the western imagination This book studies in detail the imperial union of two powers temporal and spiritual against a wide background of relations between Church and state and religious and political spheres Presenting much unfamiliar material in complex brilliant style it is aimed at all historians concerned with royal and ecclesiastical sources of power Searching God in Modern World Constantin Portelli, 2014-01-24 In the first part I present my life in the period when I ignored God I lost the time in stupid adventures and boring distractions After passed by illness depression and anxiety

I discovered the existence of God by means of divine inspiration The information is eternal and conveys the divine project This has changed totally my life I cured from anxiety and I discovered a superior purpose to follow By means of science I discovered that God is certitude I observed the logic of divine creation and certain divine programs They concern our next development and we must intelligently participate for their accomplishment

Towards World Heritage Melanie Hall, 2016-02-24 Historic preservation whether of landscapes or buildings was an important development of the nineteenth century in many countries There is however surprisingly little understanding about how it took place and research into it is narrowly focused For example generally landscape preservation from this time is examined separately from buildings preservation is seen in terms of national narratives or considered within the contexts of area studies and it is usually seen from a specific disciplinary perspective All of these later categorizations did not apply at the time and consequently a very partial view is achieved In order to begin unlocking a very complex phenomenon that has helped to define our own age this dynamic collection of essays brings together an international and transdisciplinary line up of academics and practitioners to reconsider preservation s origins in the second half of the nineteenth and early part of the twentieth century With a focus on Britain and the British Empire and including case studies from the United States Canada Sweden France Germany Sri Lanka The Holy Land and Turkey this book places preservation in imperial international and national contexts demonstrating that there was far more interaction between different countries in this arena than may be supposed and revealing remarkable but hitherto hidden overlaps and intersections It examines three main themes the influence of religion the political and sub diplomatic aspects of preservation and the professionalization of preservation practice Internationalizing trends already existed through the churches the universities and the diplomatic services as well as familial ties that had an important impact on preservation s epistemic communities and its targets Other internationalizing factors include an interest in national histories and the histories of architecture and art particularly when known through illustration a growing interest in biography especially of founding fathers or famous literary figures and tourism Although the focus is on architectural preservation this book demonstrates that in this formative period the preservation of buildings and landscapes needs to be considered together as it often was at the time and in context The conclusion reached is that the preservation movement has to be understood in imperial and international contexts rather than in simply national or regional ones
