Person and God in a Spanish Valley William A. Christian, 2020-06-30 A classic twentieth century work in the anthropology of Catholicism Person and God in a Spanish Valley is a moving portrait of how individuals and communities in a remote mountainous valley of northern Spain relate to the divine In the late 1960s anthropologist and historian William A Christian Jr conducted groundbreaking fieldwork in the Nansa Valley one of the most devout regions of Spain With sensitivity and uncommon insight Christian describes the complex system of shrines devotions and pilgrimages that existed in the region for centuries and recounts the disruption of the valley s traditional way of life as young priests from urban centers arrived carrying a more modern Vatican II version of Catholicism Person and God in a Spanish Valley places Catholic faith and practice within a broader history of agrarian politics and reform in northern Spain and stands as a landmark work of modern anthropology

Saints in the valleys Jose E. Espinosa, 1960 Sanctuaries of Earth, Stone, and Light Gloria Fraser Giffords, 2022-08-23 Over nearly three centuries Jesuit Franciscan and Dominican missionaries built a network of churches throughout the new world of New Spain Since the early twentieth century scholars have studied the colonial architecture of southern New Spain but they have largely ignored the architecture of the north However as this book clearly demonstrates the colonial architecture of Northern New Spain an area that encompasses most of the southwestern United States and much of northern Mexico is strikingly beautiful and rich with meaning After more than two decades of research both in the field and in archives around the world Gloria Fraser Giffords has authored the definitive book on this architecture Giffords has a remarkable eye for detail and for images both grand and diminutive Because so many of the buildings she examines have been destroyed she sleuthed through historical records in several countries and she discovered that the architecture and material culture of northern New Spain reveal the influences of five continents As she examines objects as large as churches or as small as ornamental ceramic tile she illuminates the sometimes subtle sometimes striking influences of the religious social and artistic traditions of Europe from the beginning of the Christian era through the nineteenth century of the Muslim countries ringing the Mediterranean from the seventh through the fifteenth centuries and of Northern New Spain s indigenous peoples whose art influenced the designs of occupying Europeans Sanctuaries of Earth Stone and Light is a pathbreaking book featuring 200 stunning photographs and over 300 illustrations ranging from ceremonial garments to detailed floor plans of the churches
