Diversity and Aging Among Immigrant Seniors in Canada Douglas Durst, Michael MacLean, 2010-01-01 Historically Canada has been a nation of immigrants with 16.20% of its citizens being foreign born Most immigrant research addresses the issues of integration and adjustment of young and adult immigrants with little work on aging There are numerous books on immigrants and books on aging but there are few that have considered the topics of both diversity and aging Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada breaks from that tradition and offers an eclectic collection of original research from among Canada's leading researchers on aging and immigrants Some researchers refer to this emerging field as Ethno gerontology There are two interesting groups of immigrant seniors those who entered Canada at over 65 years of age and those who aged in Canada Most Canadians are surprised to learn that the senior population of seniors has a higher percentage of immigrants 19.6% than the general population 13.7% As Canadians age the country's composition of immigrant seniors has also changed from mainly European to greater cultural and ethnic diversity from Africa and Asia This cultural and ethnic diversity has social health economic policy implications and impacts on programs and services delivered to seniors Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada is divided into two main sections In Part 1 the chapters explore general and universal issues such as national trends and demographics theoretical orientations issues of culture and legal dimensions poverty and income and end of life care In Part 2 the chapters examine issues pertaining to specific ethnic groups For example there are chapters on the social well being of Chinese immigrants determinants of mental health for Iranian seniors family dynamics for aging Haitian elders and emerging issues for Punjabi families Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada offers both breadth and depth to the topic of aging among immigrants and is a must read for social work and health care professionals students in health and social services policy and program planners and families of aging immigrants It is written in a language that crosses disciplines shedding professional jargon making it an informative and engaging read for professionals researchers and the general public

Hromada: The Changing Ukrainian Community in Saskatchewan Alan B. Anderson, 2025-08-25 The story of any immigrant community at its core depicts the changing meaning of home and identity the home and identity you leave behind those which you build on new shores in new places in new ways How any change to that home and identity changes the children who grow up into it how in a very real way each new generation is built from the foundation of the home and identity the previous generation laid down This story is about Ukrainian Canadians who first settled in large often robust communities in Saskatchewan beginning in the late 1890s How has the Ukrainian community thrived in Ukrainian in Saskatchewan been changing with each generation since the arrival of the first settlers This book describes what became of those first arrivals How did their birthplace shape them Where did they settle and how How were the relationships between different communities and ethnic groups in Ukraine translated on the other side of the Atlantic Even after growing into their new home these communities faced massive rural depopulation that would impact subsequent generations and those home communities We follow in their footsteps tracing the new challenges they faced in cities and how they would understand and maintain their cultural identity today Since 2022 the arrival in Saskatchewan of thousands of individuals and families displaced by Russia's full scale invasion of Ukraine has proven challenging but has been supported by the existing strong Ukrainian Canadian community here
