Sexuality And War Literary Masks Of The Middle East:

Sexuality and War Evelyne Accad,1992-05 In this text the author explores what she argues is an indissoluble link between war and sexuality She explores the connections among sexuality war nationalism pacifism violence love and power as they relate to the body the partner the family political ideologies and religion Sexuality in the Arab World Samir Khalaf,John Gagnon,2014-05-13 Arab cultural discourse has been slow to respond to changing sexual behaviour The contributors to this collection pick up the slack ranging across such disciplines as literature history sociology and psychology Is Damascus the chastity capital of the Middle East where perceptions of wealth and class fuel female rivalries How do gay men cruise in Beirut How do young women in Tunis cope with both social pressures to become thin and family pressures to gain weight What do Lebanese creative writing students write about sexual practices versus public behaviour The fresh compelling research topics covered include masculinity and migration colonialism and sexual health fantasy and violence and domestic workers and sexual tensions Other people's sex lives have always been a source of fascination and nowhere more so than in the Middle East Ground breaking New Statesman Gender and Violence in the Middle East David Ghanim Ph.D.,2009-03-20 Gender and Violence in the Middle East argues that violence is fundamental to the functioning of the patriarchal gender structure that governs daily life in Middle Eastern societies Ghanim contends that the inherent violence of gender relations in the Middle East feeds the authoritarianism and political violence that plague public life in the region In this societal sense men as well as women may be said to be victims of the structural violence inherent in Middle Eastern gender relations The author shows that the varieties of physical violence against women for which the Middle East is notorious honor killings obligatory beatings female genital mutilation are merely eruptions of an ethos of psychological violence and the threat of physical violence that pervades gender relations in the Middle East Ghanim documents and analyzes the complementary roles of both sexes in sustaining the system of violence and oppressive control that regulates gender relations in Middle Eastern societies He reveals that women are not only victims of violence but welcome the opportunity to become perpetrators of violence in the married female life cycle of subordination followed by domination The mother in law plays a crucial role in supporting the structure of patriarchal control by stoking tensions with her daughter in law and provoking her son to commit sanctioned violence on his wife The author applies his deep analysis of gender and violence in the Middle East to illuminate the motivational profiles of male and female political suicidalists from the Middle East and the martyrological adulation that they are accorded in Middle Eastern societies Blackness and Disability Christopher M. Bell,2012-02-01 Disability Studies diverge from the medical model of disability which argues that disabled subjects can and should be fixed to view disability as socially constructed much in the same way other identities are The work of reading black and disabled bodies is not only recovery work but work that requires a willingness to deconstruct the systems that would keep those bodies in separate spheres This pivotal volume uncovers the misrepresentations of black disabled bodies and demonstrates how those bodies transform systems and culture Drawing on key themes in Disability Studies and African American Studies these collected essays complement one another in interesting and dynamic ways to forge connections across genres and chronotopes an invitation to keep blackness and disability in conversation With an analysis of disability as a result of war studies of cognitive impairment and slavery in fiction representations of slavery and violence in photography deconstructions of illness cancer and AIDS narratives comparative analyses of black and Latina o and black and African subjects analysis of treatments of disability in hip hop and commentary on disability blackness and war this volume shows that the historical lines of demarcation in this field are permeable and should be challenged

Beirut, Imagining the City Ghenwa Hayek, 2014-10-29 Beirut is the cultural commercial and economic hub of Lebanon But to what extent has the city affected and shaped the formation and perceptions of Lebanese national identity Ghenwa Hayek here explores how anxieties over the past present and future of Beirut have been articulated through a sense of dislocation present in Lebanese writing since the 1960s Drawing on theories of cultural studies geography and history the author uses an interdisciplinary framework to explore the role that spaces from rural to urban have played and continue to play in the defining and re defining of national identity in the seventy years since the creation of the Lebanese nation state This theoretical perspective coupled with a close reading of little explored contemporary writings lead Hayek to question the predominant assumption that Lebanese novelists only became engaged in discourses about place identity and individual and social belonging with the start of the fifteen year civil war and the destruction of Beirut s city centre Instead the book shows that particular geographical imaginaries have been mobilized to describe question and debate Lebanese identity since the 1960s and that some go back even further into the late nineteenth century This re reading calls for a re evaluation of some of the most predominant assumptions about Lebanon and the processes of Lebanese identity formation across the country s modern history Examining a wide range of modern and contemporary literature Hayek charts the rise to cultural prominence of the city of Beirut as a significant player in shaping perceptions of Lebanese culture and identity

The Female Suffering Body Abir Hamdar, 2014-12-17 Although there is a history of rich complex and variegated representations of female illness in Western literature over the last two centuries the sick female body has traditionally remained outside the Arab literary imagination Hamdar takes on this historical absence in The Female Suffering Body by exploring how both literary and cultural perspectives on female physical illness and disability in the Arab world have transformed in the modern period In doing so she examines a range of both canonical and hitherto marginalized Arab writers including Mahmoud Taymur Yusuf al Sibai Ghassan Kanafani Naguib Mahfouz Ziyad Qassim Colette Khoury Hanan al Shaykh Alia Mamdouh Salwa Bakr Hassan Daoud and Betoool Khedair Hamdar finds that over the course of sixty years female physical illness and disability has moved from the margins of Arabic literature where it was largely the subject of shame disgust or revulsion to the center as a new wave of female writers have sought to give voice to the female suffering body

State-Society Relations in Ba'thist Iraq Achim Rohde, 2010-04-05 Scholarship on Iraq under the Ba th regime has traditionally focused on the rule of Saddam Hussein and his narrow inner circle The centrality of the former president in Iraqi politics until spring 2003 and the tyranny of his regime were evident and available sources concerning developments inside Iraqi society during that period were scarce This book explores whether traditional paradigms of totalitarian rule can be applied to Ba thist Iraq closely examining state society relations and uncovering the nature of the regime and how Iraqis lived with it The study creates a conceptual framework for understanding the inner dynamics of a dictatorship that encompasses a variety of disciplines comparative historiography political science literary and art criticism and gender studies Drawing on a comparative reading of the historiography of other regimes commonly perceived as totalitarian dictatorships particularly Nazi Germany the author looks beyond the spheres of state politics economy and jurisdiction to also include the so called soft issues of social norms cultural and ideological production By interpreting recent Iraqi history along such lines the author demonstrates how cross regional comparative perspectives and an interdisciplinary approach can contribute to the study of Iraq

Reconstructing Beirut Aseel Sawalha, 2010-05-15 Once the cosmopolitan center of the Middle East Beirut was devastated by the civil war that ran from 1975 to 1991 which dislocated many residents disrupted normal municipal functions and destroyed the vibrant downtown district The aftermath of the war was an unstable situation Sawalha considers a postwar state of emergency even as the state strove to restore normalcy This ethnography centers on various groups responses to Beirut s large privatized urban renewal project that unfolded during this turbulent moment At the core of the study is the theme of remembering space The official process of rebuilding the city as a node in the global economy collided with local day to day concerns and all arguments invariably inspired narratives of what happened before and during the war Sawalha explains how Beirutis invoked their past experiences of specific sites to vie for the power to shape those sites in the future Rather than focus on a single site the ethnography crosses multiple urban sites and social groups to survey varied groups with interests in particular spaces The book contextualizes these spatial conflicts within the discourses of the city s historical accounts and the much debated concept of heritage voiced in academic writing politics and journalism In the afterword Sawalha links these conflicts to the social and political crises of early twenty first century Beirut
