Sex Objects Jennifer Doyle, 2006 The declaration that a work of art is about sex is often announced to the public as a scandal after which there is nothing else to say about the work or the artist controversy concludes a conversation when instead it should begin a new one Moving beyond debates about pornography and censorship Jennifer Doyle shows us that sex in art is as diverse as sex in everyday life exciting ordinary emotional traumatic embarrassing funny even profoundly boring Sex Objects examines the reception and frequent misunderstanding of highly sexualized images words and performances In chapters on the boring parts of Moby Dick the scandals that dogged the painter Thomas Eakins the role of women in Andy Warhol s Factory films bad sex and Tracey Emin s crudely evocative line drawings and L A artist Vaginal Davis s pornographic parodies of Vanessa Beecroft s performances Sex Objects challenges simplistic readings of sexualized art and instead investigates what such works can tell us about the nature of desire In Sex Objects Doyle offers a creative and original exploration of how and where art and sex connect arguing that to proclaim a piece of art about sex reveals surprisingly little about the work the artist or the spectator Deftly interweaving anecdotal and personal writing with critical feminist and queer theory she reimagines the relationship between sex and art in order to better understand how the two meet and why it matters Jennifer Doyle is associate professor of English at the University of California Riverside She is coeditor with Jonathan Flatley and Jos Esteban Muoz of Pop Out Queer Warhol
