Demand for Private

Supplementary Tutoring in China Junyan Liu, 2023-05-29 This book combines the ideologies of parentocracy and consumer theory as theoretical lenses to view the private supplementary tutoring also known as shadow education with a focus on the demand at primary and lower secondary levels in China It first explains parents motivations of seeking private tutoring and their decision making dynamics and then explores the evolving micro level process of demand that has changed over time It further investigates how demand for private tutoring varies across parental socioeconomic status This book also discusses parents attitudes towards the Double Reduction policy and corresponding changes in their demand for tutoring It concludes with some implications for regulating private tutoring and for improving school education This book has pertinence in other countries as well as in China Unpacking the demand for tutoring improves understanding of the global expansion and changing shapes of the phenomenon Researchers educational policy makers teachers tutors consultants and other educational practitioners interested in the topic of private tutoring will find this work thought provoking instructive and informative Work Behavior of the World's Poor Mohammed Sharif,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2003

The working poor of the world are observed to engage in long hours in hard jobs and to work more if wages are further reduced Mainstream economics brushes off this tendency to increase labour supply as wages fall as perverse because it does not fit the conventional wisdom and tries to explain it as a result of subsistence mentality limited aspiration or target income behaviour of the poor This however ignores the observed fact that the poor work long hard hours but most of the time fail to meet their minimum needs of subsistence and live impoverished lives in absolute poverty deficient of both food and physical rest This book postulates that the observed behaviour is the result of economic distress the working poor suffer and analyses it as a rational behaviour using the conventional utility maximization framework and derives both theoretical and empirical results consistent with the observation This book aims to correct a serious misconception persisting in the literature relating to the working poor labour supply behaviour that is almost universally observed It also goes onto develop using the supply function a methodology to determine the standard of subsistence income and physical rest for the worker Determinants of Illegal Migration Robert Wiliater Sibarani,2018-10-08 Deportation remains a critical issue within labour migration from East Java to Malaysia The research presented in this book focuses on the most predominant factors determining why workers from East Java migrate illegally to Malaysia It finds out that the difference between wages before migration and expected wages in Malaysia the low educational level below junior secondary school being married and being between 15 and 30 years old increases the probability the workers from East Java migrate illegally to Malaysia Based on the findings the recommendations which are proposed to local government are to communicate actively with the migrant candidates to explain legal migration to implement strict control against the presence of illegal agents and encourage opening more branches of PPTKIS Private Agency for Placement of Indonesian Migrant Workers Abroad in the remote areas in East Java

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996

A Religious Foundation for Global Business Ethics Cristiano Ciappei, Giacomo Mininni, 2025-03-25 This book aims to draft a viable path for establishing a business ethics model based on the wisdom traditions of nine of the world's great religions: Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism, Zoroastrianism, and Animism. In light of the failure of many models based on various philosophies, we turn to the only cultural and anthropological realities that have proven to withstand the test of time and move the consciences of billions of people throughout history: religions. By exploring sacred texts and wisdom traditions, we investigate how religions contribute to the ongoing ethical debate in business environments with the aim of sparking academic and public interest in the potential of establishing a truly effective religion-based business ethics model.
