Not 'Completely' Divorced Anisa Buckley, 2019-12-03 Within Muslim communities in Australia there is great diversity in Islamic practice and religiosity When it comes to marriage and divorce however many Muslims still wish to observe religious procedures alongside civil ones and while marriage is relatively straightforward divorce raises more complications The situation of women in limping marriages in particular has raised debates among Muslims and the Australian public regarding the autonomy of Muslim women and the function of community family law processes Based upon in depth research with divorced Muslim women community leaders and local religious authorities Buckley reveals the complexities facing Muslim women in negotiating family expectations cultural norms and traditional Islamic laws Through their stories and experiences the Muslim women in this book demonstrate how they are able to navigate the intricacies of religious and civil processes and in so doing are reformulating what a complete divorce looks like Islamic Studies Series Volume 29 Manufacturers
