of immigration from the East was largely composed of settlers transitory in their habits This was a population largely of persons who were seeking fortunes with little or no intention of remaining here permanently and their efforts were turned in a different direction than that of home making Aside from these causes it has been somewhat difficult in the past to get trees except the cottonwood for planting The scarcity of water for irrigating trees has also had more or less to do in preventing the planting of shade trees About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
