Selected Short Works of George MacDonald George MacDonald, There was once a witch who desired to know everything But the wiser a witch is the harder she knocks her head against the wall when she comes to it Her name was Watho and she had a wolf in her mind She cared for nothing in itself only for knowing it She was not naturally cruel but the wolf had made her cruel She was tall and graceful with a white skin red hair and black eyes which had a red fire in them She was straight and strong but now and then would fall bent together shudder and sit for a moment with her head turned over her shoulder as if the wolf had got out of her mind onto her back This witch got two ladies to visit her One of them belonged to the court and her husband had been sent on a far and difficult embassy The other was a young widow whose husband had lately died and who had since lost her sight Watho lodged them in different parts of her castle and they did not know of each other s existence The castle stood on the side of a hill sloping gently down into a narrow valley in which was a river with a pebbly channel and a continual song The garden went down to the bank of the river enclosed by high walls which crossed the river and there stopped Each wall had a double row of battlements and between the rows was a narrow walk In the topmost story of the castle the Lady Aurora occupied a spacious apartment of several large rooms looking southward The windows projected oriel wise over the garden below and there was a splendid view from them both up and down and across the river The opposite side of the valley was steep but not very high Far away snowpeaks were visible These rooms Aurora seldom left but their airy spaces the brilliant landscape and sky the plentiful sunlight the musical instruments books pictures curiosities with the company of Watho who made herself charming precluded all dullness She had venison and feathered game to eat milk and pale sunny sparkling wine to drink She had hair of the yellow gold waved and rippled her skin was fair not white like Watho s and her eyes were of the blue of the heavens when bluest her features were delicate but strong her mouth large and finely curved and haunted with smiles
