American Studies into contention The collection focuses in particular on American mythology The editors themselves have written essays that examine the connections between mythologies of the United States and those of either classical European or Native American traditions William Blazek considers Louise Erdrich's Love Medicine novels as chronicles combining Ojibwa mythology and contemporary U S culture in ways that reinvest a sense of mythic identity within a multicultural postmodern America Michael K Glenday's analysis of Jayne Anne Phillips work and explores in it the contexts where myth and dream interact with each other Betty Louise Bell is one of four essayists in this collection who focus their criticism on authors of Native American heritage In the first part of Indians with Voices Bell carefully argues that Roy Harvey Pearce's seminal Native American studies text Savagism and Civilization fails to acknowledge its white elitist assumptions about what constitutes The American Mind and views Native Americans along a primitive savage binary that helped to create a twentieth century national mythos of innocence and destiny Other essays include Christopher Brookeman's study of the impact of Muhammad Ali on Norman Mailer's non fiction writing about heavyweight boxing Modern Painters John Ruskin,1834
