collection highlights the diversity of representations of Muslims and the range of approaches to questions of Muslim religious and cultural identity as well as secular discourse Essays by leading scholars in the field highlight the significant role that literature film and other cultural products such as music can play in opening up space for complex reflections on Muslim identities and cultures and how such imaginative cultural forms can enable us to rethink secularism and religion Surveying a broad range of up to date writing and cultural production this concise and pioneering critical analysis of representations of South Asian Muslims will be of interest to students and academics of a variety of subjects including Asian Studies Literary Studies Media Studies Women s Studies Contemporary Politics Migration History Film studies and Cultural Studies

British Asian Fiction Neil Murphy,Wai-chew Sim,2008 In this outstanding collection of essays editors Neil Murphy and Wai chew Sim seek not so much to demarcate the field of British Asian fiction but to offer due acknowledgment of the artistic merit of the works of selected authors and simultaneously register their cultural significance This volume demonstrates in situ the virtues of commentary that engages in a substantial manner with formal and aesthetic considerations even as it implicates the discourses of alterity that dominate contemporary cultural criticism Additionally the essays delineate the complex subject positions explored by authors and texts and focus on the way writers negotiate the exigencies of their location within and between different social formations If it is the case that British literature can no longer be discussed in monocultural terms because of the impact of the writers under consideration it is also the case that the diverse trans cultural positions they explore are often less specified than proclaimed Addressing difference commensurability and form related notions of truth content these essays enlarge our understanding of the range of British and affiliated identities as well as the cultural contexts from which they arose Working as academics and critics from Singapore a useful vantage point Murphy and Sim have extended the parameters of British Asian to include not just writers from South Asia as is traditionally the case but writers whose parents or who themselves have migrated to Britain from other regions of Asia for example Japan Hong Kong and Malaysia This initiative has made it possible for professors Murphy and Sim to bring together first an interestingly varied group of authors among them those who came to prominence in the 1980s Salman Rushdie Timothy Mo Kazuo Ishiguro as well as their younger contemporaries Meera Syal Romesh Gunsekera Monica Ali Hari Kunzru Ooi Yang May and second a broad and diverse range of novels that span Timothy Mo s Sour Sweet 1982 and Tariq Ali s A Sultan in Palermo 2005 the fourth volume in his Islam quintet British Muslim Fictions C. Chambers,2012-03-09 Through interviews with leading writers including Ahdaf Soueif and Hanif Kureishi this book analyzes the writing and opinions of novelists of Muslim heritage based in the UK Discussion centres on writers work literary techniques and influences and on their views of such issues as the hijab the war on terror and the Rushdie Affair World Medievalism Louise D'Arcens,2021 Explores the ways in which a range of modern textual cultures have continued to engage creatively with the medieval past in order to come to terms with the global present Contemporary Pakistani Fiction in English Cara Cilano,2013-04-12 Looking at a wide selection of Pakistani novels in English this book explores how literary texts imaginatively probe the past convey the present and project a future in terms that facilitate a sense of collective belonging The novels discussed cover a range of historical movements and developments including pre 20th century Islamic history the 1947 partition the 1971 Pakistani war the Zia years and post 9 11 Pakistan as well as pervasive themes including ethnonationalist tensions the zamindari system and conspiracy thinking The book offers a range of representations of how and whether collective belonging takes shape and illustrates how the Pakistani novel in English often overshadowed by the proliferation of the Indian novel in English complements Pakistani multi lingual literary imaginaries by presenting alternatives to standard versions of history and by highlighting the issues English language literary production bring to the fore in a broader Pakistani context It goes on to look at the literary devices and themes used to portray idea nation and state as a foundation for collective belonging The book illustrates the distinct contributions the Pakistani novel in English makes to the larger fields of postcolonial and South Asian literary and cultural studies
