A Promise Of Hope Autumn Stringam,2011-05-03 Some children inherit the family nose Autumn Stringam and her brother Joseph inherited the family bipolar disorder a severe mental illness that led to their mother's and grandfather's suicides Autumn at 22 was psychotic and in a psychiatric hospital on suicide watch Joseph at 15 was prone to violent episodes so terrifying the family feared for their lives But after they began taking a nutritional supplement developed by their father and based incredibly on a formula given to aggressive hogs Autumn's and Joseph's symptoms disappeared Today they both lead normal productive lives A Promise of Hope is the personal story of Autumn Stringam's flight from madness to wellness all due to the vitamin and mineral supplement that works on the premise that some forms of mental illness are caused by nutritional deficiencies An honest book that exposes the hidden torment of bipolar disorder it is the story of a daughter seeking to forgive her mother A Promise of Hope is also an astonishing scientific account that moves from a kitchen table in Alberta to the treatment offices of a distinguished Harvard psychiatrist and into the labs of a skeptical medical establishment It climaxes in a bitter but eventually triumphant battle with Health Canada in which the tiny supplement company is exonerated and praised for saving the lives of thousands of Canadians previously thought lost to mental illness More than anything A Promise of Hope is a powerful story and a call for a new understanding of the causes of mental illness 20% of Canadians will experience mental illness in their lifetimes Over 300 000 Canadians are affected by bipolar disorder or manic depression 15% of people with bipolar disorder commit suicide EMPower Plus the supplement that worked for Autumn is being used and studied around the world reflecting the growing awareness of the role of micronutrients in normal brain function That's Not Fair! Gyo Fujikawa,1983 Though four friends have a disagreement while playing in the snow they come to realize playing together is more fun than playing alone The Baptist ,1920
