Watkins, Charles Hubert Watkins, 2016-10-27 Yesterday in the Hills recalls life in North Georgia from the 1890s until World War II and records vanished and vanishing folkways of the region. Here is folklore at its best, seen from the inside and mediated through the heart. Yesterday in the Hills is built upon the bedrock of experience and memory, but its sharply drawn characters and beautifully proportioned narrative transcend reminiscence and realistically depict hill country life as it once was. Authentic, flavorful chapters about old-time hill people of North Georgia, their backbreaking field work, their song and play, their courtship, their neighborly exchange of help with the chores, their homemade remedies for illness and homemade practically everything else, their humor, and their individuality. Publishers Weekly A gentle, humorous personal recollection of real people and the way they lived and worked. Choral Sight Reading Micheál Houlahan, Philip Tacka, 2023-01-31 Choral Sight Reading provides a practical and organic approach to teaching choral singing and sight reading. The text is grounded in current research from the fields of choral pedagogy, music theory, music perception, and cognition. Topics include framing a choral curriculum based on the Kodály concept, launching the academic year for beginning, intermediate, and advanced choirs, building partwork skills, sight reading progressive music theory sequences for middle to college level choirs, teaching strategies, choral rehearsal plans, as well as samples of how to teach specific repertoire from medieval to contemporary choral composers. This volume includes basic and advanced music theory concepts to develop fluent sight reading skills for reading standard choral repertoire, providing examples for the process outlined in Chapters 6-8 of Volume 1, Choral Artistry. This guide provides choral directors with a choral curriculum and choral rehearsal models that place performance, audition, partwork, music theory, and sight singing skills at the heart of the choral experience through a sound thinking approach to teaching that results in greater efficiency in creating independent choral singers with a well-rounded repertoire.

The Frank C. Brown Collection of NC Folklore Frank C. Brown, 1977-04-29 Frank C. Brown organized the North Carolina Folklore Society in 1913. Both Dr. Brown and the Society collected stories from individuals. Brown, through his classes at Duke University and through his summer expeditions in the North Carolina mountains, and the Society by interviewing its members and also leaved on the previous collections made by friends and members of the Society. The result was a large mass of texts and notes assembled over a period of nearly forty years and covering every aspect of local tradition.

The Musical Classroom Patricia Hackett, Carolyn A. Lindeman, 2007 Assuming little or no musical background, this book demonstrates how music works and how to convey this understanding to others. It helps learners develop skills in teaching music while offering them introductory experiences in playing and reading music.

KEY TOPICS The book features over 170 songs, information on learning instruments, and sample lessons. Presented in a non-technical, user-friendly manner, Section I introduces music in the elementary school, the elements of music, music-making activities, curricular approaches, and developments. The eclectic world of music and how to plan and assess music learning. The instrumental instruction section provides information about playing Autoharp, guitar, baritone, ukulele, piano, and soprano recorder, as well as information about the singing voice. It features descriptions of hand and body positions, fingerings, and strums, including keyboard drawings, chord frames, tuning instructions, and fingering charts. Lists specific songs that may be used in learning to play each instrument individually or in large or small groups. For individuals teaching or preparing to teach music.
