Shake Hands, Columbus Dorothy J. Larson, 1980 The St. Louis and Canadian Photographer ,1892 Finding Columbus's Gold Howard Yasgar, 2022-07-11 In 1966 an old friend invites Matt Vercair to Port au Prince Haiti to assist in disassembling and selling a now defunct Haitian railroad acquired under unusual circumstances Once in Haiti Matt is introduced to chief archeologist Dr Marc Blanchet Blanchet is an expert on Christopher Columbus and everything he did on the island of Hispaniola According to Blanchet the history being taught about Columbus is a fraud Instead of exploration Columbus s true intentions were to amass gold and sell as many slaves as he could to finance his travels Blanchet knows where a large cache of Columbus s gold has been hidden in Haiti for five hundred years With the help of a map Matt now embarks on an incredible journey to recover the gold traveling across previously unexplored terrain The railroad is of little concern as they search for hidden treasure but it s possible Matt is about to find a lot more than riches in the beautiful but dangerous wilds of Hispaniola The Battle for the Court Lawrence Baum, David Klein, Matthew J. Streb, 2017-10-03 Once largely ignored judicial elections in the states have become increasingly controversial over the past two decades Legal organizations prominent law professors and a retired Supreme Court justice have advocated the elimination of elections as a means to choose judges One of their primary concerns is interest group involvement in elections to state supreme courts which they see as having negative effects on both the courts themselves and public perceptions of these judicial bodies In The Battle for the Court Lawrence Baum David Klein and Matthew Streb present a systematic investigation into the effects of interest group involvement in the election of judges Focusing on personal injury law the issue that has played the most substantial role in spurring interest group activity in judicial elections the authors detail how interest groups mobilize in response to unfavorable rulings by state supreme courts how their efforts influence the outcomes of supreme court elections and how those outcomes in turn effectively reshape public policies The authors employ several decades worth of new data on campaign activity voter behavior and judicial policy making in one particularly colorful important and representative state Ohio to explore these connections among interest groups elections and judicial policy in a way that has not been possible until now We Are Not a Vanishing People Thomas Constantine Maroukis, 2021-06 The early twentieth century roots of modern American Indian protest and activism are examined in We Are Not a Vanishing People It tells the history of Native intellectuals and activists joining together to establish the Society of American Indians a group of Indigenous men and women united in the struggle for Indian self determination Titan ,1846 The American Caravan ,1927
