Europe to the Stars Govert Schilling, Lars Lindberg

Christensen, 2013-02-01 The creation of the European Southern Observatory ESO in 1962 was the culmination of the dream of leading astronomers from five European countries Over the years as more member states joined ESO constructed the La Silla and Paranal observatories as well as the Atacama Large Millimeter submillimeter Array ALMA together with partners ESO is now starting to build the world's biggest eye on the sky the European Extremely Large Telescope At the dawn of 2012 its 50th anniversary year ESO is ready to enter a new era One that not even its founding members could have anticipated in their boldest dreams Constantly at the technological forefront ESO is ready to tackle new and as yet unimaginable territories of high precision technology and scientific discovery Produced especially for ESO's 50th anniversary this sumptuously illustrated book takes the reader behind the scenes of the most productive ground based observatory in the world It contains the best 300 of ESO's images hand picked from a large collection of more than 100 000 images Beautifully produced Europe to the Stars tells the story of how dreams of giant telescopes became a reality and covers many of the exciting discoveries made at La Silla and Paranal BBC Sky at Night 1 February 2013 Leave the book on your coffee table certainly but read it first and come back to it regularly It's an intelligent inspiring celebration of a great European scientific adventure Astronomy Now 1 March 2013

The Morning Star J R. Jones, 2010-10

The apocalypse has come and gone The seals have been broken the horns sounded and the bowls emptied God has passed judgment and created a new world for His faithful Eterni Settling the supervision of Zion in Archangel Mikael's loyal hands God leaves with a third of the angelic hosts to create some other reality universe world beings A thousand years pass in harmonic serenity but suddenly odd occurrences begin adding up producing an uneasiness in heaven An angel falls ill for the first time in eternity sinister sightings appear on Eterni and a new and unknowable prophecy is announced What had begun as the age of peace is quickly becoming anything but as unfolding events herald the return of the Morning Star

Talking Baseball with Major

League Stars Wayne Stewart, 2025-02-18 An entertaining and illuminating inside look at Major League Baseball through the words of the players themselves Imagine you had the opportunity to sit down with ballplayers such as Hank Aaron Greg Maddux Joe Torre and Nolan Ryan You might ask them about their star teammates and hated opponents You might talk about the obstacles they overcame and the strategies that led to their success Or you might just talk about life in the majors In Talking Baseball with Major League Stars Wayne Stewart provides readers with all that and more Featuring over 45 years of interviews Stewart details the history tactics and inside stories of the national pastime with unique perspectives that only the players coaches and managers could provide They discuss the most difficult pitchers they faced the unwritten rules the game's wildest characters cheating intimidation the players they most admire racism in and around the sport and their fears and doubts along with candid stories never heard before Including exclusive insight from more than fifty Hall of Famers and countless award winners and covering nearly one hundred different topics Talking Baseball with Major League Stars is a fascinating behind the scenes journey into the world of professional baseball The Latter-Day Saints' Millennial Star, 1899

Litka, 2017-07-13 Shipwrecked in the floating islands Captain Wil Litang of the space ship Lost Star finds himself shipwrecked on a tiny floating island in the vast atmospheric sea of the Archipelago of the Tenth Star Making matters worse he's not alone He shares the island with an assassin who has taken a vow to kill him and a feathered dragon with a whole lot of teeth The Lost Star's Sea is the sequel to The Bright Black Sea The novel is set in the Archipelago of the Tenth Star a vast hollow world filled with islands floating in a sea of air Cut off from the Lost Star Captain Wil Litang must not only survive the fierce beasts and dragons of the island but their savage people as well pirates bandits and the strange servants of the Dragon Kings Not to mention the assassin Naylea Cin who has pursued him across the Nine Star Nebula to kill him The story of Wil Litang and the Lost Star concludes in this classic planetary adventure novel written in the tradition of Edgar Rice Burroughs C Litka writes old fashioned novels with modern sensibilities humor and romance His lighthearted novels of adventure mystery and travel are set in richly imagined worlds and feature a colorful cast of well drawn characters If you seek to escape for a few hours your everyday life you will not find better company nor more wonderful worlds to travel and explore than in the novels of C Litka The Star in the Desert Mrs. Henry S. Mackarness, 1860 The Star-Crowned Kings Rob Chilson, 2020-10-19 The human race has split into two groups ordinary people like Race and his mother and sister and the Starlings humans with godlike telekinetic powers Their powers enable them to carry spaceships to the stars and settle many planets while ordinary folk are no better than

slaves Now Race finds that he has Starling powers too Excerpt First correction to his visualization there was no stream of traffic He saw and sensed three or four ships as many more might be out of his range They were running right into Slavin's trap His stomach lighter and more hollow with fear he extended his mind enfolding the fast little freighter within it moving it as he had moved Dinine between stars No acceleration was felt within the ship instead they felt Jacarantha's grip weakening draining away Race crowded the safety limit the air speed indicator whining The transponder beeped in warning before they were out of atmosphere and Race felt a wave of despair It was off not replying to that insistent question from space But where radar probed coherent light beams also would be The yellow sky had long since turned green then blue now royal purple set with stars The transponder carilloned and the radio barked at him harshly on the official space frequency Attention freighter halt at once or Another voice cut in as authoritatively but Race wasn't listening From low fast orbit overhead a ship had flashed up behind him he felt it swell A fast moving dot before him would be another He was keyed up intolerably and turned the ship now without a thought At his right hand was a handle in the hull Moving it swiveled a teleperiscope that combined a low powered wide angle view with a high powered narrow angle one Immediately below their line of sight and precisely parallel to it was a glass tube about an inch in diameter and five inches long Connected to it was a pocket in the hull containing a handful of common glass marbles The whole apparatus was outside the airseal It was the work of but a moment to line the telescope and tube on the growing dot of light that was the first ship He had placed marbles at the bases of the firing ports before takeoff and now he flicked one as he had flicked pebbles like bullets in the Mountains of the Oron months before but with the fury of despair Involuntarily he blinked in time to save his vision The Starling ship erupted in a fireball that illuminated half the world below For half a second Race stared horrified at the destruction he had wrought Then fear blossomed like that spreading glare every Starling in the area knew where he was now He swerved the ship away recklessly not hearing the clangor of the radiation alarm His mind swooped and reeled as things like planets whipped past in less than an eyeblink two of them almost on opposite sides of the ship one nearer than the other On the radio two voices were bellowing one Surrender the other Shoot Shoot Another thing flicked past invisible undetectable but to his mind seeming to have planetary mass yet to be incredibly tiny Marbles like his own flicked at near light speed Fear galvanized him His rolling gaze touched the Imperial Cluster and in a moment the ship was in incredible motion toward it Jacarantha shrank behind them

The Evening Star Faye Haskins, 2019-09-11 The Evening Star The Rise and Fall of a Great Washington Newspaper is the story of the 129 year history of one of the preeminent newspapers in journalism history when city newspapers across the country were at the height of their power and influence The Star was the most financially successful newspaper in the Capital and among the top ten in the country until its decline in the 1970s The paper began in 1852 when the capital city was a backwater southern town The Star's success over the next century was due to its singular devotion to local news its many respected journalists and the historic times in which it was published The book provides a unique perspective on more than a century of local national and international history The book also exposes the complex reasons for the Star's rise and fall from dominance in Washington's newspaper market The Noyes and Kauffmann families who owned and operated the Star for a century play an important role in that story Patriarch Crosby Noyes life and legacy is the most fascinating a classic Horatio Alger story of the illegitimate son of a Maine farmer who by the time of his death was a respected newspaper publisher and member of Washington's influential elite In 1974 his descendants sold the once great newspaper Noyes built to Joseph Allbritton Allbritton and then Time Inc tried to save the Star but failed

The Star Rover Jack London, 1915 The Star Rover is an imaginative flight into man's history rendered in London's most realistic terms It is the story of Darrell Standing condemned to solitary confinement in a corrupt prison who learns to free his soul from his body and escape his pain to go winging off through space and time From dust jacket

To The Stars George Takei, 2015-03-10 Best known as Mr Sulu helmsman of the Starship Enterprise and captain of the Starship Excelsior George Takei is beloved by millions as part of the command team that has taken audiences to new vistas of adventure in Star Trek the unprecedented television and feature film phenomenon From the program's birth in the changing world of the 1960s and death at the hands of the network to its rebirth in the hearts and minds of loyal fans the Star Trek story has blazed its own path into our recent cultural history leading to a series of blockbuster feature films and three new versions of Star Trek for television The Star Trek story is one of boundless hope and crushing disappointment wrenching rivalries and incredible achievements It is also the story of how after nearly thirty years the cast of characters from a unique but poorly rated television show have come to be known to millions of Americans and people around the world as family For George Takei the Star Trek adventure is intertwined with his personal odyssey through adversity in which four year old George and his family were forced by the United States government into internment camps during World War II Star Trek means much more to George Takei than an extraordinary career that has spanned thirty years For an American whose ideals faced such a severe test Star Trek represents a shining embodiment of the American Dream the promise of an optimistic future in which people from all over the world contribute to a common destiny
