Allegory Studies Vladimir Brljak, 2021-08-30 Allegory Studies Contemporary Perspectives collects some of the most compelling current work in allegory studies by an international team of researchers in a range of disciplines and specializations in the humanities and cognitive sciences The volume tracks the subject across disciplinary cultural and period based divides from its shadowy origins to its uncertain future and from the rich variety of its cultural and artistic manifestations to its deep cognitive roots Allegory is everything we already know it to be a mode of literary and artistic composition and a religious as well as secular interpretive practice As this volume attests however it is much more than that much more than a sum of its parts Collectively the phenomena we now subsume under this term comprise a dynamic cultural force which has left a deep imprint on our history whose full impact we are only beginning to comprehend and which therefore demands precisely such dedicated cross disciplinary examination as this book seeks to provide Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation s quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture
