Shakespeare and Science Tom Rutter, 2024-08-24 As a figurehead for the literary humanities and a dramatist whose plays feature fairies ghosts and spirits Shakespeare may not be the first author that comes to mind when thinking about science Tom Rutter shows however that in his plays and poetry Shakespeare made detailed use of the knowledge and theories of the cosmos the natural world and human biology that were available to him These range from astronomical and anatomical ideas derived from medieval scholars Islamic philosophers and ancient Greek and Roman authorities through to the challenges issued to those earlier models by more recent figures such as Copernicus and Vesalius Shakespeare's treatment of these materials was informed by the poetic and dramatic media in which he worked the dialogic nature of drama enabled an approach that could be provisional exploratory and tolerant of uncertainty and contradiction Shakespeare made the early modern playhouse a venue for the production of scientific understanding through performance illusion and the creative use of space As well as surveying current scholarship that contextualizes Shakespeare's work in relation to histories of meteorology matter theory humoral physiology racialization mathematics and more Shakespeare and Science offers detailed original readings of a variety of texts including the Histories

Hamlet Antony and Cleopatra Othello King Lear The Tempest the Sonnets and Lucrece It also makes extensive reference to works by Shakespeare s near contemporaries such as Robert Recorde William Fulke Juan Huarte and Thomas Elyot Its four chapters focus on astronomy and meteorology matter the body and mathematics Rutter s overall approach is informed by recent studies that interrogate science as a concept and that question both the boundary between literature and science and the idea of a seventeenth century scientific revolution catalogue of works relating to william shakespeare and his writings in the barton collection boston public library James mascarene hubbard,1880 Shakespeare Survey: Volume 53, Shakespeare and Narrative Peter Holland,2000-11-02 The theme for Shakespeare Survey 53 is Shakespeare and Narrative Circular - Institute of Research, Lehigh University Lehigh University.
