

..Live Well And Long (Love Poem)

When you are standing by my grave
Don't ask the children to behave,
Let them run free and shout out loud,
The living joy of which I'm proud.

When I am lying six feet deep
Don't sadly hang your head and weep,
But let my final epitaph
Be tales of life that make you laugh.

When you are talking at my wake
Don't chat politely eating cake,
Instead buy champagne by the crate
Link arms with friends, dance, celebrate!

When people stop and say 'too bad'
Don't reminisce and then feel sad,
But raise your glass up high and toast
The joys of life you love the most.

When all are shaking hands at last
Don't hold a grudge from years long past,
But face each other, then embrace,
Forgive, let love spread from this place.

And finally, when on your own,
Don't think that you are all alone,
But sing out loud so I can hear
And wipe away that foolish tear.

For I lived well
And I lived long
And none shall soon forget my song,
And all I wish,
From high above,
Is you live well and long, my love.

Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine A Long Essay on the Long Poem Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2023-03-21 For decades Rachel Blau DuPlessis has shown readers how genres forms and the literal acts of writing and reception can be understood as sites of struggle In her own words writing is a praxis in which the author disappears into a process into a community into discontinuities and into a desire for discovery It is cause for celebration then that we have another work of warm incisive expository writing from DuPlessis in A Long Essay on the Long Poem

Wordsworth's Poems of Travel 1819-1842 J. Wyatt, 1999-06-03 There is a long held view that Wordsworth's inspiration dried up before the age of forty This book opposes that view by examining the substantial body of poetry written after his fiftieth year The argument is that in order to appreciate this work much of which was inspired by itineraries in Britain and in Europe we have to read the poems as they were first published By adopting the perspective of the contemporary reader Wordsworth's grand design can be appreciated
