Crossing the Threshold Harlene Walker,2014-06-27 In Crossing the Threshold Metaphors of an Evolving Faith Harlene Walker invites us to accompany her on a metaphorical hike through her cathedral forest while she explores her Christian faith and spirituality In the land of don t know the landscape changes radically until we finally come to an open garden of compassion Her faith life evolves realistically she recognizes that our society has evolved from post Christian to post theistic In this new paradigm as she laughs cries and feels frustrated or surprised she sees both her spirituality and her faith strengthen She has prepared herself and us to grow deeper into the wisdom of the heart and soul As we accompany her through many personal conversions Walker shows us that crossing thresholds is the work of body mind and spirit and that there is more than one threshold to cross This Ain't the Ritz Neil D. Martin,2015-12-03 It s the mid seventies and Rock is King Every tavern in the land has live music and every kid who can play wants to be a Rock Star Captain Nobody and the Forgotten Joyband are in the thick of it After four years on the road they know they are close to breaking in to the big city rooms but has it come too late Neil isn t sure Facing another week playing in yet another small town bar he struggles to find strength As he sorts through his memories of life on the road can he find the inspiration to go on The Generation That Saved America Bettye B. Burkhalter,2010-12 History Romance Destiny The Third Novel in the Trilogy Dr John Burel s great grandson John Harrison was a toddler when his family pioneered from South Carolina to Mississippi As a youngster he proudly helped his family bellwether the Civil War and rebirth of the New South By the early 1900s he was a prosperous farmer and landowner Time passed quickly and too soon he was an old man Join Grandpa and feel the biting north wind as he shuffled onto the front porch cupped his hands around his mouth and shouted It s hog killing day Watch the bustling families rush toward the big house to slaughter enough hogs to carry them through the winter Summer finally arrived and brought old time gospel singing and preaching to their country church on the hill Mama rose early on Sunday morning and filled her basket with fried chicken biscuits baked sweet potatoes and fried apple pies After preaching there was going to be another dinner on the ground Everyone was excited Without a doubt those were the good years But all that changed Walk down the dismal road with the Burrell family as they helplessly watched the reckless Roaring Twenties and Great Depression bring a flourishing economy and their comfortable lifestyle to a grinding halt Feel Grandpa s pain and humiliation when the bank called in his Deed of Trust and he was forced to sell his last 640 acre farm and home for a few dollars Sit for awhile and listen to his grandson Cecil Allen Burrell The Man Himself as his thought provoking stories detail how they all survived those disastrous years With their eyes on the future John Harrison s children and grandchildren navigated their way back into prosperity and eventually reclaimed their part of the American dream the same dream brought to America by their Great3 Grandfather Dr Jean Baptiste Elz ar Burel in 1778

The Weavers of Trautenau Janine Holc,2023-10-16 A sympathetic history that focuses on the experiences of women and girls during the Holocaust and draws on new archival sources Beginning in late 1940 over three thousand Jewish girls and young women were forced from their family homes in Sosnowiec Poland and its surrounding towns to worksites in Germany Believing that they were helping their families to survive these young people were thrust into a world where they labored at textile work for twelve hours a day lived in barracks with little food and received only periodic news of events back home By late 1943 their barracks had been transformed into concentration camps where they were held until liberation in 1945 Using a fresh approach to testimony collections Janine P Holc reconstructs the forced labor experiences of young Jewish females as told by the women who survived and shared their testimony Incorporating new source material the book carefully constructs survivors stories while also taking a theoretical approach one alert to socially constructed intersectional systems of exploitation and harm The Weavers of Trautenau elucidates the limits and possibilities of social relations inside camps and the challenges of moral and emotional repair in the face of indescribable loss during the Holocaust

Taleworlds and Storyrealms K. Young,2012-12-06 Beginning is the hardest ITPment not because openers are all that scarce but because you re blowing into cracking a universe l Maurice Natanson q enings are already directed toward closings The first question in presenting a body of work is where to cut in This is an especially difficult question since the cut in provides a perspecti ve on what follows A cut is an angle of entry Wherever I enter from there a realm unfolds itself In that sense my angle of entry is my point of view A realm cut into has an orientation It evidences a hierarchy of importance relevance accessibility value or logic Its content is no longer neutral and equivalent From my perspective the realm is not only differentiated in substance but differential in significance There is a relation between angles and attitudes Where I look from is tied up with how I see The first cut opens out into a frame of reference What count as lines of evidence in that realm materialize along with its background expectancies its assumptions concentrations and confusions its cosmology quirks and enchantments Hence once I am committed to a perspective I am implicated in a methodology one possessed of puzzles of a certain shape Ipping toward solutions within its orthodoxy Openings are directed toward closings Another cut would open onto another realm The realm of events I cut into is a Taleworld inhabited by characters acting in their own space and time
