Today much of Christendom is closely associated with the eating of animals. Some churches even have hunting and fishing trips. Meat, eggs, and dairy are a staple in most professing Christians' diets. Is any of this in line with God's will or pleasing to Him? Could it be that so many passages of Scripture that traditions have told us are teaching the ethics of killing animals are actually stating something completely different? This book takes a Scriptural approach to the subject of humanity's treatment of animals: what God desires from us and what the Bible says about it all. If you have been raised thinking that animals are here to be food for humans or for our entertainment, then by reading this book you will discover many edifying truths. There are so many topics covered that almost every question one could have about veganism from a Christian perspective is answered. The contents of the book are:

Is God a Vegetarian? Richard Alan Young, 2012-03-30 Is God a Vegetarian is one of the most complete explorations of vegetarianism in the Judeo Christian tradition Young a linguistics and New Testament scholar attempts to answer the question being asked with greater and greater frequency Are Christians morally obligated to be vegetarians Many people are confused about the apparent mixed messages within the Bible On the one hand God prescribes a vegetarian diet in the Garden of Eden and the apocalyptic visions of Isaiah and John imply the restoration of a vegetarian diet However it is also clear that God permits Jesus partakes in and Paul sanctions the eating of flesh Does the Bible give any clear guidance Close readings of key biblical texts pertaining to dietary customs vegetarianism and animal rights make up the substance of the book Rather than ignoring or offering a literal twentieth century interpretation of the passages the author analyzes the voices of these conflicting dietary motifs within their own social contexts Interwoven throughout these readings are discussions of contemporary issues such as animal testing and experimentation the fur industry raising animals in factories and the effects of meat eating on human health Thirteen chapters cover such topics as the vegetarian diet in the Garden of Eden the clothing of the first humans in animal skins God's permitting humans to eat meat animal sacrifice the dietary habits of Jesus and the early apostles Paul's condemnation of vegetarianism as heresy the dietary views of the early church fathers the peaceable kingdom The author provides two vegetarian recipes at the end of each chapter An epilogue includes guidelines for becoming a vegetarian and a recommended reading list Insightful and challenging Is God a Vegetarian poses provocative questions for vegetarians Christians and anyone reflecting upon her personal choices and ethical role in our world today

God-given Foods Eating Plan: for Lifelong Health, Optimization of Hormones, Improved Athletic Performance Gary F. Zeolla, 2007-03-01 This book studies different food groups with a chapter devoted to each major classification of foods First the Biblical evidence is considered then modern day scientific research Foods are classified as God given foods and non God given foods A healthy eating plan is composed of a variety of God given foods and avoids non God given foods Unlike other books on this subject this book does not promote a vegetarian diet since God gave us meat for food and meat eating is assumed throughout Scripture with no negative connotations Moreover meat poultry and fish can and should be included in a healthy eating plan The proposed eating plan is also designed to optimize hormones such as testosterone growth hormone and insulin This can produce dramatic differences in a person's health and well being and can lead to a gain in muscle mass and a loss of body fat It can also lead to improved athletic performance This book also looks at other aspects of athletic nutrition
